FEBRUARY 17, 2019 BULLETIN RAY'S REMARKS:

K.E. FAMILY LIFELINE

Despite the cold weather last Sunday, we had a good crowd for morning worship. I know many were unable to get out due to the roads, but it was good to be with those who were able to get out and I know many of our family joined us via the internet. God has really blessed us with the ability to stream our services live over the internet. We certainly are very thankful to Online Academy of Biblical Studies for allowing us to do this on a weekly basis.

This crazy weather is about to get us all down. You wake up one day and it's cold and then warm the next or sunny on another day and raining the next. We definitely live in the Ozarks, but it sure keeps our sinuses messed up with all the change back and forth. Remember we have several members who have been dealing with the flu, colds and other sicknesses. I know we are keeping them in our prayers. We also need to remember those recovering from surgeries, like sister Slider. We hope she will be able to be back with us soon.

I received word yesterday evening that dad arrived safely in Uganda. He was traveling by road to Busia today and is already there by now. Please keep him and his work in your daily prayers. I know it is difficult to be over there alone, but it was important that he oversee the construction of the new building at the school. Also, a new class will be starting next week. Great things are happening for God in Uganda, Ghana and Zambia and we are all blessed to be a part of it. Please keep all these good works in your prayers as well as all of our local efforts for the cause of Christ. It is good to be busy as God's people and to be sharing the gospel with a lost and dying world. Praise God for all the opportunities He gives us to serve Him in this life.

I look forward to seeing most of you tonight for our mid-week services. Let's also prepare and be ready to come on the Lord's day and give God our very best. There is no greater place to be on Sunday than with our brethren and no greater opportunity than to worship God together in spirit and truth! May God bless us all as we strive to do His perfect will, each and every day.

ELDERS' CORNER:

Hope everyone is having a good week. The Sunday Worship service was very good even though our attendance was down due to the icy weather. The ones that missed were there for the PM service. Our young men led prayers, scripture reading and the song service; all did a good job. We are so proud of all our youth.

Keep brother Jerry in your prayers while he is in Africa for about 2 weeks. Keep all the ones that are having health problems in your daily prayers.

Thanks for not bringing food or drinks in the auditorium.

February is, Fill Our Pantry Month. Any help you can give will be great. Pancake Mix, Peanut Butter and Syrup are the items we need this week.

Another Sunday bible class will be offered starting February 24th in the Feloo

Keep our new members in your prayers. Please get to know all of them.

It was sure good to see our sister, Pat Bailey back in our services. She can attend since we now have a van with a wheelchair lift on it.

"Oh, give thanks to the Lord, for He is good! For His mercy endures forever." Psalms 107

See all of you on Sunday,

Gary and Jerry
