NOVEMBER 17, 2019 BULLETIN RAY'S REMARKS:

K.E. FAMILY LIFELINE

Last Sunday was a beautiful Lord's day and the weather was almost perfect. It was nice to be together as God's people and to worship our Creator on such a lovely day. It always seems like everyone is much better spirits and happier during such times.

Now Monday is a different story. Yikes! It was so cold by the end of the day and then we even got some of the white stuff. Unfortunately, there was too much rain before and we probably got more sleet than snow, but it was still a beautiful day. You know it gets bad when Springfield schools close for the day. Anyway, I'm glad we all made it through these coldest of days safely and now it looks like we are beginning to warm up as the week goes on.

We went ahead and had the Monday night classes this past Monday night. Although it was impossible for some to get out, we did have a lot of folks join us on the internet. Unfortunately, we didn't get these lessons recorded and archived however, I think that Brent and I will try to re-record them at some point so that we will have our archived programs complete. I know some are still watching the classes after the fact so we would like them to be complete.

We continue to remember Gary and the whole Dalton family in the loss of our beloved sister Marilyn. It is always hard to believe it when our dear loved ones are gone. However, we continue to rejoice in the fact that she was a faithful Christian and that if we do what God requires, we will be able to see her again someday. Let's also continue to pray for this good family that they may have the strength from God necessary to endure the coming days.

Well, I hope to see you tonight for our mid-week service. As always, it will be a great blessing to study God's Word and to Worship before His Throne. Also, remember that the Lord's day will be here before we know it, so make sure to prepare yourselves and be present and ready to give God your very best. May God bless us all as we strive to do His Will and as we look forward to His blessed rewards and promises.

THANK YOU:

To Our Dear Brothers and Sisters,

Mere words cannot express our gratitude and love for the care and many acts of kindness and love shown to us in our time of loss and grief.

Your love of Christ has been evidenced in the love and generosity expressed to our family these past few days, you are truly a very special people.

We will miss our dear sweet wife, mother, grandmother, and great-grandmother and look forward to that day when we see her again.

We love each and every one of you with all our heart. We thank you all. Please keep us in your thoughts and prayers as we strive together for that Heavenly Home.

Gary Dalton and family

ELDER ON CALL FOR NOVEMBER: DAVID FIELDER

WAS THE BIBLE WRITTEN TO BE UNDERSTOOD?

by Garland M. Robinson - Seek the Old Paths

It is very common today for people to say, "we cannot understand the Bible alike." Such a statement is often offered in defense of the more than 400 different denominations that exist in the world. People want their own way and expect God to be happy with it.

I certainly do not want to be one who blames God as being the author of such confusion. First Corinthians 14:33 says, "For God is not the author of confusion, but of peace, as in all churches of the saints." It is not God's fault when people do not understand nor follow the Bible. The Bible was written to be understood.
 The apostle Paul, being inspired of the Holy Spirit (2 Tim. 3:16-17), wrote to the church at Ephesus so they would understand the Revelation (Will, Word) of God.
 "How that by revelation he made known unto me the mystery; (as I wrote afore in few words, Whereby, when ye read, ye may understand my knowledge in the mystery of Christ)" Eph 3:3-4. He was writing so they would understand what had been revealed to him concerning the "mystery of Christ." The mystery of Christ was that which had been previously unknown in Old Testament times (verses 5- 11). Now, could they understand what he wrote or not? Yes, they could understand, for the very purpose in writing it was so they would understand the Will of God!
 Since they could understand it, can't we?

The letter to the church at Colossae was to be understood and forwarded to other congregations so they would read and understand. "And when this epistle is read among you, cause that it be read also in the church of the Laodiceans; and that ye likewise read the epistle from Laodicea" (Colossians 4:16).

The books of the New Testament are to be read everywhere. "I charge you by the Lord that this epistle be read unto all the holy brethren" (1 Thessalonians 5:27). Why read the Word of God if it cannot be understood as some contend?

Jesus prayed that all who believe would be "one" united (John 17:20-21). Was Jesus praying for the impossible? According to what many believe today, Jesus did not know that people could not see and understand the Bible alike. The fact is, Jesus knew we must see the Bible alike if we expect to be pleasing in his sight.

Following the scriptures will unite those who love God, not divide them. How dare anyone say we cannot understand the Bible!
