Getting Started

- 1) Why might some people try to get a top employee to do something that will force the employer to discipline the top employee?

---

---

---

- 2) If you knew that someone was trying to set you up to look bad in front of someone important, would you change how you acted around them and/or the important person? Why or why not?

---

---

---

Into the Word

- 1) How were the other governors and satraps able to trick Darius into creating a law that would force Daniel to choose between his faith and obeying the law of the land?

---

---

---

- 2) Which characters in the lesson display faith and/or confidence in God? What evidence from the lesson support your answer?

Bringing Things Current:

4) There was a time in U.S. History when it wasn't unusual for people to pray at schools, government events and public places. Now, it's a lot harder for people to pray in those places as some of the places have rules against praying on the grounds of their facilities. Some people of faith feel like these changes have caused prayer to be removed from these places. Do you believe that prayer can be removed from a place? Why or why not?
