

Real Questions Bible Study III: “What About People Who’ve Never Heard About Jesus?”
– Romans 1:16-25

Opening Questions

- 1) Is it fair for someone to experience the consequences of an unhealthy, lawless and immoral life if no one told them about healthy lifestyles, the laws of the land and what the larger society considers moral? Why or why not?

---

---

---

---

- 2) Have you ever desperately wanted something good for someone in your life yet still allowed them to make choices that invited bad into their life? If so, why didn't you force the person to make good and right choices?

---

---

---

---

Into the Text

- 1) If the Good News (or Gospel) contains God's power for salvation, do believers who refuse to share the Good News, do a disservice to people who haven't heard about Jesus yet? Why do you feel this way?

---

---

---

---

- 2) In previous Bible Studies in this series, we learned how God offers people different ways to get to know God. How do all of these opportunities show that God's doing God's part to make God known to people who haven't heard about Jesus?

- 3) Do you think God is being mean and vindictive by allowing people who haven't accepted the message of salvation to go to hell?

---

---

---

---

- 4) Have you ever witness someone who isn't a Christian reveal that they know something about God even though that haven't accepted Jesus Christ as Savior of their lives? If so, did what you witness reinforce what today's lesson says about people knowing God but rejecting what has been revealed? If so, how so?
