

DEEPEN YOUR YOGA PRACTICE

200-HOUR REGISTERED YOGA TEACHER TRAINING

Maybe someone told you that you would be a good teacher, or maybe you feel this calling to share your love of yoga with others. Or, maybe you simply love to learn and want to grow your own practice. Whatever the reason you feel compelled to consider teacher training, we encourage you to explore this interest.

The Find Your Edge Yoga Teaching Training Program, hosted by Tapestry Healing Arts Center, is a registered school through Yoga Alliance (pending certification Dec. 2017), and is built on a new model of training and development. This program has been carefully tailored to meet a variety of learning styles and schedules. Although there is required in-person training hours, students are able to cater their program to include educational time between sessions with online activities, ensuring consistency of concepts and greater exploration of the themes discussed. This program will enable you to maintain balance in your own practice, work and family life.

DISCOVER THE FIND YOUR EDGE YOGA DIFFERENCE

The Find Your Edge Yoga Teaching Training Program incorporates modern educational learning tools, styles and flexibility. Key features of the Find Your Edge Yoga program include:

- VARIETY: Exposure to a variety of yoga styles as compared to many programs rooted in one particular yoga lineage.
- MENTORING: Consistent, ongoing mentoring throughout the program as well as after graduation.
- FLEXIBILITY: The program schedule offers flexibility including the option to make-up sessions missed due to illness or family/work commitments.
- BALANCE: Having a balanced life is at the top of the list for many interested in becoming a teacher. While in-person training is mandatory to earn certification through Yoga Alliance, and necessary as so many concepts are best learned in-person, there are many topics that can be discussed using an online discussion board, phone conference and other online tools between in-person sessions.
- THE REST OF THE STORY: This program goes beyond learning poses, cueing and sequencing to a broad-based education on yogic philosophy, Ayurveda, yoga for special populations (those with chronic pain, seniors, kids, pregnancy, etc.) and the business of yoga.
