

Tai Chi Vermont, Inc.

Sun 73 Forms Tai Chi Instructor Certification/Recertification Registration

Date:	Friday and Saturday, June 8 & 9, 2018, 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m.
Registration Deadline:	Sat., May 26th
Location:	To be announced...probably Charlotte/Shelburne/Vergennes area
Workshop Trainer:	Marty Kidder (Assisted by Anne Bower & Ellie Hayes)
Directions:	Turn West off Route 7 (right if traveling from north; left if traveling from south) onto Ferry Rd. and go just past police station. Senior Center is on right.
Workshop Fee:	$250 for two days for first certification; $125 for RE-certification

If you will offer your Sun 73 instruction through an Area Agency on Aging or SASH, we can invoice your organization, but please check with them before filling out this registration to be sure they'll cover the cost of the workshop.

Fee includes two days of instruction, snacks and beverages, along with free skillbuilder workshops throughout the term of your two-year certification. There are local places to buy lunch, or you can pack your own (fridge is available).

Day one (Sat.) will be devoted to intensive work on the Sun 73 form and the best ways to teach it.

Day two (Sun.) will include a teaching practicum where new instructors can teach class participants in small groups with supervision from Marty Kidder.

Certificates will be awarded at the end of day two.

(Note: Class participants for day two—that is, people NOT seeking certification—will register separately at a cost of $50. We encourage you to promote this learning opportunity to your own current students.)

Important Note: When you certify or recertify in Sun 73 you receive automatic recertification in all segments of Tai Chi Vermont's Fall Prevention Tai Chi. To be super clear about this—you do not need to also take recert in FPTC.

It's our sincere hope that everyone coming to the workshop will receive full certification or recertification. However, if Marty believes an individual needs more training before he or she can be a safe and effective teacher of Sun 73, a provisional certificate will be issued, with instructions on what to do so that full certification can be gained.

Note: Tai Chi Vermont now has a small Scholarship & Training Fund (we are actively encouraging donations to this fund). If you will need some financial assistance in order to attend the Sun 73 certification/recertification, please send an email to Anne and she'll let you know the procedure.

Please fill in the form that follows and send by email attachment or snail mail to Anne Bower (anniebower@yahoo.com; Anne Bower, P.O. Box 74, South Pomfret, VT 05067).

Total number of years you've taught tai chi (any form)? ____

Other teaching or professional experience you believe is relevant to your tai chi instructor role?

Feel free to use the space below to let us know your concerns about this workshop—things you hope we'll concentrate on, learning techniques you find particularly helpful, any medical or health issues you want us to know about, and certainly any questions you have.

PAYMENT: Checks should be made out to Tai Chi Vermont and can be sent to Anne Bower, P.O. Box 74, S. Pomfret, VT 05067.

Tai Chi Vermont, Inc. is a 501(c)(3) organization incorporated in the State of Vermont and working in affiliation with Area Agencies on Aging in the state, SASH (Support & Services at Home), and other groups to train, certify, and mentor instructors who can lead tai chi classes throughout Vermont. Donations to Tai Chi Vermont are completely tax deductible. Website: www.taichivermont.org