American Cyber's Chief Operations Officer Wins Smart CEO Brava Award

Clifton, VA, (May 9, 2016)– American Cyber is pleased to announce that Laurie Freeman, American Cyber's Chief Operations Officer (COO), was selected as a winner in the Smart CEO Brava Awards. Celebrating the achievements of distinguished women business leaders, Ms. Freeman will be honored as one of Greater Washington's top 40 women business executives.

"Winners possess the hallmark qualities of successful leaders — vision, passion, compassion, dedication, perseverance," says Jaime Nesper-Zawmon, president of SmartCEO magazine. Each winner in this year's class exhibits these qualities in all facets of her life, from running her business to tending to her family and donating time and resources to philanthropic initiatives.

Joining American Cyber in January 2014, Ms. Freeman has demonstrated her leadership ability, including managing client relations, external partnerships and operational personnel. Under Ms. Freeman's leadership, American Cyber has experienced a remarkable growth since 2014, including a 250% growth in revenue and a 130% increase in employees.

Ms. Freeman is a devoted advocate in giving back to the community. She has served on several community boards including the George Mason University Business Alliance and as Chairwoman of the Business Alliance Grubstake Committee. She is an active supporter of a number of DC community educational and sports organizations, including The National Foundation for Teaching Entrepreneurship (NFTE) and the Greater Washington Sports Alliance.

About the Brava Awards

The Brava Awards program, sponsored by SmartCEO organization/magazine, celebrates high-impact female business leaders in three categories: CEOs, Executive Directors of Nonprofits, and C-suite executives. Brava award winners combine their irrepressible entrepreneurial spirit with a passion for giving back to the community, and are exemplary leaders of both their companies and their communities. They encourage local philanthropy, mentor up-and-coming leaders and set their companies on the path to tremendous growth.
