

Marisa joined The O.C.E.O. Foundation in 2015. Since then, her talents and career skills have helped to empower and advocate the lives of individuals, families and community groups. She has an inspiring service-involvement history that is continuously sparked through a passionate servant leadership commitment.

“I am truly grateful for the opportunity to be involved with The O.C.E.O. Foundation and its mission to provide hope and achievable solutions contributing to the advancement of positive self-worth, sustainable investments and the quality of life.”