PRESENTS

LEGISLATIVE AWARENESS DAY!

Thursday, April 5, 2018

9:00am to 4:00pm

(Doors open at 8am) at the

First United Methodist Church, 930 North Blvd, Baton Rouge, LA 70802 to discuss the state of HIV/AIDS in Louisiana.

Lodging (15 double rooms for 30 advocates) and 5 singles (for Speakers) has been reserved at the LaQuinta Hotel on Acadian Freeway for the night before the event for advocates/clients traveling more than 99 miles (dependent on the number of registrants). Deadline for registration for a room is April 30, 2018

Legislative Awareness Day (LAD) brings together People Living with HIV, their allies, and member organizations from around the state of Louisiana. We mobilize for advocacy training, and a day of engagement at the state level, educating legislators about HIV and issues for those living with HIV in Louisiana.

WE NEED YOUR VOICE!!!!!!

We ask EVERYONE who plans to attend to please REGISTER at:
