Intro

Verse 1

We are alive in the life you've given, a fire in my soul
We are a light in the darkest prison, never on our own
Your love is wild it's flowing through me like a river running through my soul
Your love is wild I surrender and I'm giving up all control

Chorus 1

We are free, free in your love free in your love
We are free, free in your love free in your love
