

Only You [Lyrics, 73 bpm, 4/4]

[Marathon Worship]

Intro:

Verse 1

Set my heart on fire, burn my sin away
Bring my bones to life, and overtake the grave
Pull me into your arms, and take the pain away
Let my praise rise up, and break away my chains

Pre

Only You, only You can make me new
Only You, only You can make me new
Only You

Verse 2

You're my one desire, to fall in love with you again
Teach my soul to die, to further your great name
When my cup runs dry, your spirit's fresh once again
Make Your heart beat mine, with You my soul remains

Chorus

Move mountains to get to me
Calm storms and raging seas
All victory is found in you
Cast all my sins from east to west
Gave life defeated death
All victory is found in you
All victory is found in you

Bridge

I have decided to call you my love
Jesus I give you my heart as a home
