

Lift These Bones [Lyrics, 74 bpm]

[Marathon Worship]

Intro

Verse 1

We are still in the silence
We are calm in the storm
Searching for meaning in this life we come from
We are tired and misplaced
We have pain from mistakes
But we are covered by Your endless grace

Chorus

Come awake, come awake
Lift these bones up from the grave
Breathe in life let Your glory fill this place
We've been desperate but we are rescued
We have reason to belong
Welcome home, you're not alone

Tag: Chorus 2 into bridge

Welcome home, you're not alone

Instrumental

Verse 2

You're the light in the darkness
You will make a way
You see the beauty in our guilt and shame
Through You life has purpose
Even in our darkest day
Every sin we've owned is washed away

Bridge

We have freedom in Your name
Chains are broken, we're remade
We've been rescued by the blood of Jesus
Hear our voices as we sing
Shout it out in victory
I am Yours and You are mine oh Jesus
