THAT WAS THE ROAD SHOW THAT WAS !

Very many thanks to all those who had a stall at the Road Show and thanks to those who encouraged people to go down to it. There was a definite 'buzz' in the hall and I hope that you had interesting conversations with each other and we have a number of people signed up for various activities in the parish. I am very aware that many families are struggling and have little time to do anything beyond keeping going. So, if you could not attend I understand but you will also appreciate that the parish has to develop the service of those who do have some time. Together we try to recognise Christ among us and minister to people. Father Michael

CAKE SALE – THANK YOU

I would like to thank everybody at St Francis Church for their support and generous donations towards my cake sale last Sunday. All the money will go directly to the work of the Christian charity Tearfund and their partners, to enable more young adults have the opportunity to make a difference in disadvantaged communities. THEACT FROM AMORIS LAETITIA, THE POST-SYNODAL APOSTOLIC EXHORTATION OF THE HOLY FATHER FRANCIS EXTRACT FROM POPE FRANCIS' AMORIS LAETITIA

Discerning the body. Along these same lines, we do well to take seriously a biblical text usually interpreted outside of its context or in a generic sense, with the risk of overlooking its immediate and direct meaning, which is markedly social. I am speaking of 1 Cor 11:17-34, where Saint Paul faces a shameful situation in the community. The wealthier members tended to discriminate against the poorer ones, and this carried over even to the agape meal that accompanied the celebration of the Eucharist. While the rich enjoyed their food, the poor looked on and went hungry: “One is hungry and another is drunk. Do you not have houses to eat and drink in? Or do you despise the Church of God and humiliate those who have nothing?” (vv. 21-22). The Eucharist demands that we be members of the one body of the Church. Those who approach the Body and Blood of Christ may not wound that same Body by creating scandalous distinctions and divisions among its members. This is what it means to “discern” the body of the Lord, to acknowledge it with faith and charity both in the sacramental signs and in the community; those who fail to do so eat and drink judgement against themselves (cf. v. 29). The celebration of the Eucharist thus becomes a constant summons for everyone “to examine himself or herself “ (v. 28), to open the doors of the family to greater fellowship with the underprivileged, and in this way to receive the sacrament of that eucharistic love which makes us one body. We must not forget that “the ‘mysticism’ of the sacrament has a social character”. When those who receive it turn a blind eye to the poor and suffering, or consent to various forms of division, contempt and inequality, the Eucharist is received unworthily. On the other hand, families who are properly disposed and receive the Eucharist regularly, reinforce their desire for fraternity, their social consciousness and their commitment to those in need.
