Subject: Coronavirus Issue.

Brethren,

The Coronavirus issue is very much real in that it is affecting our daily lives. The governor of Arizona has declared a "state of emergency" for Arizona. This status has not limited any meetings but that could possibly be the next step. If in fact that becomes the case then the Grand Lodge of Arizona will take the following position:

Until further notice we will continue to meet as required, i.e. mandatory meetings like Stated meetings, by the Constitution of the Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of Free and Accepted Masons of Arizona. We will follow the precautions established by our state governments, i.e. no handshakes, washing hands regularly, wiping down surfaces and maintaining the recommended "social distance."

In all cases if a brother is feeling ill, coughing, etc. or if a brother does not feel comfortable attending a meeting they should stay home.

Fraternalty and sincerely.
