

300th Year of Organized Masonry

300 Years ago the first Grand Lodge of Freemasonry, The Grand Lodge of England, was formed. Masonry existed long before that and its growth was one of many conflicts and tribulations.

Governor Doug Ducey recently proclaimed June 24, 2017 as “Freemasonry Day in the State of Arizona”.

Mohave County Supervisor Buster Johnson, Mayor Monica Gates of Kingman and Mayor Mark Nexsen of Lake Havasu City, Arizona, recently proclaimed June 24, 2017 as “Free & Accepted Masons Day”.

On Saturday, September 30th, the Kingman Masonic Lodge #22, Free & Accepted Masons will be hosting the “Celebration of the 300th Year of Organized Masonry” at the Kingman Masonic Lodge in Kingman, AZ located at 212 N. 4th Street.

This program will be presented by The Grand Lodge of Arizona Free & Accepted Masons and will be convened at 2:00PM by the Most Worshipful Grand Master Scott Thomas. There will be a 40-minute program presented by the Grand Orator Worshipful Brother Ahmet Erdmir, who will describe the expansion and growth of Freemasonry, what Organized Freemasonry has brought to the world as it has developed through the years, and what the Mission of Freemasonry is for the Future.

This presentation is OPEN TO THE PUBLIC and there is NO CHARGE to attend. Refreshments will be served following the presentation. For more information call Ken Chism, Worshipful Master of Kingman Masonic Lodge #22 at (928)380-0009.
