

Welcome to the RENVYPAA Speaker Meeting

My Name is _____ and I am an Alcoholic.

At this time, please silence your cell phones out of respect for our Speaker(s) and Readers; please refrain from texting or playing with your phone during the meeting.

Right now, I would like to thank the members of RENVYPAA for their services. Would all the RENVYPAA Members please stand to be recognized?

Let's open the meeting with a moment of silence for the alcoholic who still suffers, followed by the Serenity Prayer for those who care to join in.

God Grant me the Serenity

To accept the things I Cannot Change

Courage to Change the things I Can

And Wisdom to Know to the Difference.

*Read the A.A. Preamble

I have asked _____ to read a portion of Chapter 5 from the Big Book of Alcoholics Anonymous.

Thank you _____

I have asked _____ to read the Twelve Traditions.

Thank you _____

We will now countdown by days until the newest newcomer is standing.

When the number of days you have is stated, please be seated.

(Now addressing the oldest old-timer) would you please come to the podium?

* (Now addressing the newcomer) would the last person that was standing come to the podium? (If there are two newcomers with the same amount of days, ask them both to come up to the podium).

Please step up to the microphone and introduce yourself, so we may get to know you better.

Hand Big Book to the old-timer and have them present it to the newcomer(s).
(Applause)

7th Tradition

At this time we will observe the 7th tradition and pass the baskets.

Are there any A.A. related Announcements

After Announcements

For those of you who might not have heard the previous announcement, we remind you to please silence your cell phones and refrain from texting during the meeting. Please try to remain in your seat as to not disturb the speaker or meeting.

Introduce tonight's Guest Speaker (Name), (City), (State)

When Speaker is finished

Thank the Speaker(s) for coming out, and for a great message, etc.

Before we close the meeting _____ will read The Promises.

Let us now form a circle and close this meeting in our usual manner.
