

Welcome!

Welcome to Primary Purpose Coaching and Consulting! I am excited about working with you during this season of your life as you pursue your dreams and goals.

As your coach I am committed to you and your best interests. I will give you my undivided attention, ask the hard questions and reflect back to you what I hear. I will challenge you and encourage you to explore new avenues of fulfilling your God-given potential. The people I work with are ready, willing and able to make changes so that they can have lasting impact for good on the world through their personal lives, in their families, their churches, and their workplaces. It will be an honor to walk faithfully beside you as your coach.

Just a few things you'll want to note about coaching as we get started. Coaching is not to be confused with therapy. Coaching is forward-focused and goal driven. Our time together will be spent identifying the areas you want to work on, the values that drive you, and developing action plans for stepping into a future you would like to see. We will work on clarifying your goals, overcoming roadblocks, fulfilling your business and life purpose, and growing along the way.

In our time together, you will set the agenda of the calls. My job will be to manage and guide the process in ways that move you toward the objectives and goals you set. At times, I will make requests of you. I will occasionally offer insight and suggestions. However, each decision of what to do and the course of action you desire to take will be entirely yours. I will support you and champion you toward that end.

I encourage you to make a serious commitment to coaching, and provide yourself with adequate time to progress. Remember, coaching is an investment in yourself. I am confident that with a strong commitment to the coaching process, you will see the results you want as we walk together in the weeks and months ahead.

Please thoughtfully complete and return the three forms from this welcome packet. It will be of great benefit for both of us. Feel free to contact me with any questions at 502.233.2458

I'm looking forward to working together!
