Out in the barn, Eli found a leather bag. Inside was an old book. On the cover was a lable: "Abe Jefferson, 1924." Eli could see that it was a jurnle that had belonged to his great-grandfather when he was just a boy. Eli read the first entry: "This morning, I put the sadell on Lightning and went out to round up the catel. In the distance, I could hear a terribal crash of thunder. Severall minutes later, I saw the sky turn a greenish yellow. I wondered if a tornado was coming...."

Eli turned the page. The rest of the book was empty. Eli put the journal in the bag and headed back to the house. Maybe his grandmother would know the end of the story.
