

Join us at our third

TAPESTORY ICo (INTER-COMMUNITY) COHESION & WELLBEING
THROUGH DIALOGUE & ART WORKSHOP

NOON-2 PM, SATURDAY, MAY 13TH, 2017

SANDY SPRING MUSEUM
17901 BENTLEY ROAD, SANDY SPRING, MD 20860

Help eradicate hate, bigotry, and violence in our society.

Explore different ways of thinking and acting with individuals from diverse backgrounds as you collaboratively find common ground.

Learn how to transform attitudes-behaviors to create a strong-peaceful society.

Go to www.tapestry.org to get FREE TICKETS

Participant testimonials from March Workshop

“I feel like I know people at this table more than I know people I’ve worked with for years.”

“This workshop inspired me to spark conversations like these with other people.”

100% said they learned something new about others who are different.

100% said they found common ground with others who are different.

90% said because of the workshop they have modified their attitudes toward others who are different.

Tapestry is an initiative of the Sramani Institute, a 501(c)(3) tax-exempt nonprofit institution promoting prosperity and wellbeing through diversity in identity, innovation, and practice.

Visit www.sramani.org for more information or write to tapestry@sramani.org.