

SMF Annual Fundraising Recital

Mark your calendars! The Sackville Music Festival will be hosting its annual fundraising recital on Sunday, January 22 2017 at 3 pm at the Brunton Auditorium. "A Community of Performers" will showcase some of Sackville's exceptional musical and theatrical talents - it's an event you will not want to miss! Admission is by donation with proceeds going to support the Sackville Music Festival.

This year we are thrilled to welcome many new performers and ensembles whose talents will delight the audience: Janet Hammock and Danise Ferguson, Karin Aurell and the Sackville Flute Choir, the Sackville Citizens Band, Jennie Del Motte, the Junior Jills fiddling group under the direction of Stacey Reid, Glenn Copeland, and Elizabeth Copeland.

The Sackville Music Festival is an annual week-long event in Sackville which provides an opportunity for music students and community members, both young and old, to perform music and recite in a supportive public forum. The students receive detailed oral and written feedback about their performances from professional adjudicators, and develop their love of music through listening to their fellow performers and the insightful, helpful comments offered by the adjudicators.

The 2017 Sackville Music Festival will be held on April 24 to 29 in the Music Conservatory of Mount Allison University. The deadline for registration for the festival is February 17. The syllabus and entry forms, as well as information about the adjudicators are available at www.sackvillemusicfestival.com or call 536-1390 for details. All are welcome!
