1. If you are new to participating with the Millington Arts Council sponsored events, please submit a photo of your booth and photos/descriptions of the items you sell to millingtonartscouncil@gmail.com.
2. Once approved, you may complete this registration form and email to our email address above. You may make payment via the paypal link provided at <http://www.millingtonartscouncil.org/news-events>. If you prefer, mail your registration and payment to Millington Arts Council, 7743 Church Street, Millington, TN 38053. We encourage our vendors to share quality images of your handmade items so we may share on our website, FB and Instagram pages.
3. All registration forms and payment are due no later than Friday, August 25, 2017. However, applications & payments received prior to August 1, 2017 are eligible for early bird rates.
4. MAC will schedule load-in times; additional information will be provided the week of the event. Vendors must be open for business during the entire event. All vehicles must be cleared of the venue immediately after the assigned load-in time has passed.
5. Following the exhibit/market, all vendors must be cleared to drive a vehicle into the venue. Vehicles will not be allowed into the area until all patrons have cleared the venue. NO EXCEPTIONS.
6. All canopies, signs, and product displays MUST fit within the 12x12 allotted space. Due to unpredictable weather conditions, please make plans to secure your tent for the duration of the event. Due to limited lighting in the Artist Village, BATTERY OPERATED lights are highly recommended.
7. If you have questions prior to the festival, please contact millingtonartscouncil@gmail.com.
8. We encourage our vendors to provide demonstrations where practical for handmade arts/crafts. Provide schedule timeframes for demonstrations so that we can capture demonstrations and share on social media. Buy/sell items are not authorized to be sold at this event.
