OF Marching Bulldog Band performed at "The Shoe"

On Saturday, September 29th, the OF Bulldog Marching Band traveled to Columbus where they were invited to perform at The Ohio State Buckeye Invitational. Olmsted Falls was one of 45 bands to perform throughout the day, including The Ohio State Marching Band's culminating performance at the end of the night.

The Bulldogs took the field at Ohio Stadium to perform their 60s themed show for family, friends, and other bands from across the state of Ohio. The band was also able to watch their entire performance afterwards in the Ohio State band room and received comments and praise from a director at the school.

Afterwards, the band split up for dinner before returning to the stadium to see and hear some awesome performances from a variety of different competition marching bands.

The evening concluded with a performance by The Ohio State Marching Band.

This trip was certainly a highlight for many marching band members, especially members from this year's senior class; it was easily a trip they will never forget. Congrats on an awesome performance Bulldogs, and a special thank you to our directors and chaperones for helping make this trip as successful as it was!

Written by Emma Andrus (band senior and officer)

2018 OFHS gad Joe Bertrand and member of The OSU Marching band escorted the OF band into the OSU stadium.
