BEEF CARCASS CONTEST

The purpose of this contest is to provide a more complete learning experience for 4-H and FFA members by measuring carcass traits on market steers. Carcasses will be evaluated by: hot carcass weight, rib eye area, back fat thickness, USDA quality grade, and % kidney, pelvic, heart fat (if available).

CONTEST RULES

- (1) Only current year Junior Livestock Show of Spokane market steers that go through the sale are eligible.
- (2) There must be a minimum of 10 eligible and qualifying steers in the contest for it to take place.
- (3) Only carcasses that are hung in the processing facility in halves, not quarters, are eligible.
- (4) The entry fee is $30, $25 of which will go into the jackpot and $5 for office/processing fee.
- (5) Entry forms and fees will only be accepted at the end of the market steer sale until 6 PM that same day (Saturday, May 6, 2017). At the sale, there will be a designation of where the steer will be processed which will determine if it will be able to be hung in halves, not quarters.
