Diana Trask Daughter of Australia

Diana Trask was born in Melbourne Australia and at the age of eighteen went to the US to break into showbusiness as a singer. She achieved success in pop music and then became a major international country artist. Although Diana has lived and performed in the US for many years she still holds Australia in her heart and returns often to her homeland.

Diana has written these liner notes on the songs featured in this outstanding CD ...

Daughter Of Australia

This is a song I recently wrote and dedicate to the women of Australia. I believe they are heart and soul of a great nation. The lyrics for this song come from deep in my heart.

Lock Stock And Teardrops

This is the original track I recorded in Nashville. Roger Miller wrote this song that hit charts at No 36 with a bullet. It was my very first country music hit song and I was thrilled.

Run Boy Run

I wrote this song originally for a historical play. This is the true story of US Vice President Aaron Burr slaying his opponent Alexander Hamilton in a duel in 1804. Upon Hamilton's death, Burr sought refuge with friends in St Marys, Georgia to escape the pursuit of the newspapers.

Hold What You've Got

A great song written by the late Joe Tex. I introduced this song at the Grand Ole Opry in Nashville Tennessee. This song charted very well for Tex and myself.

This Must Be My Ship

I really liked the rhythm of this song when I first recorded it on Kari Records. It is a song of optimism and hope.

All of the people

I wrote this song with the hope that people would remember that the Lord gave us only one command – to love one another.

Stirrin' Up Feelings

One of three songs recorded in Nashville with the brilliant songwriters Foster and Rice.

Here's To You Baby

My inspiration to write this song was a woman sitting alone in a bar with a heart full of regret. This was recorded in Branson with my dear friend Dave Owens.

Star Of The Sea (Gabe's Song)

This song is dedicated to Fr. Gabe, our much loved priest of Our Lady Star of the Sea, Georgia. This song is taken from the ancient vesper inscribed on the walls of the Church he built.

Old Country Church

This is a song I wrote about my wedding in Warburton Australia, the town I grew up in. Three thousand uninvited guests showed up at the event. I had a top TV show running at the time and many of the fans came along. It was a heart wrenching experience to write this song. The Old Country Church is still there.
