Real Oath Of Office

When judges are sworn in they take two oaths/affirmations. The first is the oath of allegiance and the second the judicial oath, these are collectively referred to as the judicial oath.

Oath of allegiance

"I, _____, do swear by Almighty God that I will be faithful and bear true allegiance to Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth the Second, her heirs and successors, according to law. "

Judicial oath

"I, _____, do swear by Almighty God that I will well and truly serve our Sovereign Lady Queen Elizabeth the Second in the office of _____, and I will do right to all manner of people after the laws and usages of this realm, without fear or favour, affection or ill will. "

Affirmation - Allegiance

"I, _____, do solemnly sincerely and truly declare and affirm that I will be faithful and bear true allegiance to Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth the Second Her Heirs and Successors according to Law"

Affirmation - Judicial

I, _____, do solemnly sincerely and truly declare and affirm that I will well and truly serve our Sovereign Lady Queen Elizabeth the Second in the office of _____, and I will do right to all manner of people after the laws and usages of this Realm without fear or favour affection or ill will.
