Bishop Richardson introduced three groups to the conference for inspiration, information, and aspiration for the conference. These included the 1) Health Initiative 2) Acts 2 Care and Caregiver Initiative, and the 3) DART ministry.

Bishop Richardson presented Dr. Penny Ralston, accompanied by Mrs. Ruth Moss, Greater Mt. Olive, Merritt Island to give a progress report – AME Health Initiative (10:34 am – 10:48 am).

1) Health Initiative: Dr. Ralston outlined the structure of the Health Initiative Staffing:

1. Presiding Elder District representative
2. Conference coordinators
3. Selected components representative
4. Advisory Committee Health Expert
5. Local church health members

Health Team Taskforce members from the Central Conference:

1. Sybil Gaines
2. Dr. Sharon McCrary
3. Elouise Walker
4. Dr. Lee Fowlkes
5. Ruth Moss
6. Margaret Thomas

The teams continue AME Health Smart Initiative and Hand Hygiene Initiatives. The programs are working and experiencing growth. The team is exploring two ideas:

1. Integrate Health in components such as the YPD
2. Created Standard Practice
 - a. Healthy Ministry- Growth at small church
 - b. Add Dental and Mental Health

Dr. Ralston announced that Humana has presented the initiative with a $199,000 grant. She asked that conference members visit the health tables during the conference.

BISHOP'S MOMENT: Bishop Richardson informed the conference that Edward Waters College received a grant of 8.5 million dollars to renovate Tiger Landing, Dormitory Space for the athletes, construction of a campus stadium in Newtown, and a community track that will benefit the community and students to walk and run on the track.

Bishop stated that the Humana $199,000 grant acquisition is being implemented by Stephen AMEC, Greater Grant Memorial AMEC, St. Paul AMEC, and three other denominations.

2) ACT2 (African American Caregiver Training and Support): Retired Presiding Elder James Proctor, Community Partner, Dr. Glueckauf, Project Director, Retired Presiding Elder Ralph Wilson, and Tomeka Burns, Project Coordinator presented the ACT2 initiative on Care for the Caregiver. Dr. Proctor thanked the bishop and supervisor for their support in allowing them to expand the initiative into other areas. On the 28th of this month, Rev. Gray will host a full presentation so that it can be embedded into the conference. The program is free. Sessions include training of caring for dementia, relaxation techniques, difficult behaviors, etc. The toll-free number is 866-887-2724. The training can also be done by telephone. The website address is www.act2project.org.

Bishop Richardson thanked the conference for their prayers for him and Supervisor Richardson, his caregiver. He admonished the conference to be aware that the caregivers also need care (10:48-11:05 am).

D.A.R.T. (Director Action and Research Training): The Rev. Nathan Mugala and the Rev. Nathaniel Barnes, along with Volusia County FAITH contact Jessica Robillard. DART is a social justice ministry. There are 200 affiliated congregations in Florida. The FAITH (Fighting Against Injustice Towards Harmony) program is being implemented by Allen Chapel AMEC, Daytona and Mt. Zion AMEC, Daytona. Volusia County has an 8 million dollars set aside for homeless assistance with a goal of permanent facilities. The Sheriff office was able to obtain Norco to counteract the opioid epidemic. At least 15 lives have been saved. The number of civil citations have been raised resulting in at least 4000 less juvenile arrests

BISHOP'S MOMENT: Bishop Richardson noted that the gospel is being lived out through these three initiatives on health, caregiving and social justice. There are many outside programs that do similar outreach activities, but we do our activities in Jesus' name.

Bishop Richardson announced that AME on the Capitol day will be December 5, 2017. He stated that the restoration of voters right for those who served their time will also be discussed then (11:05 – 11:21).

Opening Worship Evening Service
7:05 P.M.

The Ministers, Pastors, Presiding Elders and Bishop Richardson dressed in black ecclesiastical attire processed in the Sanctuary to the Opening Worship Service of the 118th Session. The melodic, moving and harmonious Central Conference choir filled our souls with the songs as "My God is Good all the Time" and Allen Chapel AMEC, Sanford choir cleared the way for their pastor singing "Lord, I am standing in the need of a Blessing."

The Rev. Octavious Smith, Allen Chapel preached a powerful and anointing Annual Sermon "When God calls you to Greater Works" from the Luke 5:1-10 passage. He preached that when Gods calls us to greater works, He calls us through His Word, He call us to witness of His miracles, and we must have a willingness to follow. He challenged the Conference to move from shallow waters to the deep. The Rev. Smith passionately preached out of his soul, bringing the Conference and guest to their feet, inspired to move forward.

Bishop Richardson stated that our hearts go out to the people in Las Vegas, Nevada and the hurricane impacted areas of Houston, Texas, Puerto Rico, South Florida, Central Florida the Virgin Islands.

The program participants are listed in the official Conference Worship Guide. There were 508 persons in attendance to the Opening Worship Experience of the 118th Session of the Central Annual Conference.

Rev. Ronald Williams thanks Rev. Gray and Saint Mark church family for use of the site and gave the announcements.
