11th Episcopal District | 118th Session | Central Annual Conference

Annual Message

This year we brought in a guest speaker in the name of Rev. Patricia Wallace, the Pastor at Harvest A.M.E in Pahokee, FL. Rev. Wallace shared with us "The Road to the Harvest". During this time, she shared her story and encouraged us to embrace our journey for, "It's not the journey that will kill you, it's what's on the side of the road that will kill you."; in essence keep your focus on Christ Jesus not the nay-sayers seeking to discourage you. For, you are not intended to see yourself through others' eyes; God has empowered you to be where you are for a purpose. She further encouraged us to bloom where we are planted.

Save the Dates

The WIM Quadrennial August 6-9, 2018 in Birmingham, Alabama

The 11th Episcopal Women in Ministry Retreat is scheduled for August 16-18, 2018 at Mission Inn, Howey in the Hills open to all women in ministry and lay women.

Special Presentation

Special thank you to a phenomenally gifted young man by the name of Adam Broughton, of Mt. Zion Ocala, who provided CCWIM with a beautiful charcoal rendition of Bishop Richardson and Supervisor Richardson. Rev. Kim Stockton, the Central Conference WIM Coordinator along with Rev. Bettye Watson, 11th Episcopal WIM President and Rev. Dr. Rhella Murdaugh, assistant CCWIM coordinator, presented Bishop Richardson and Supervisor Richardson with this special gift from the Central Conference Women in Ministry.
