

B12.0 Official Rodeo Rules and By-Law/Rule Amendments

1. Rule Change: (page 69)

R9.5.3 Neck ropes must be used on calf roping horses. In the tie down roping event a contestant will receive a no time for that run if he brings the animal over backwards (between 11 and 1 on a standard clock) with the animal landing on its back or head with all four feet in the air. Only If the judge feels that the jerk down was intentional the contestant will receive a $100 fine as well as a no time. (amended 2019)

2. Rule Change: (page 37)

R2.1.15 Late Entries After Call Backs - If the rodeo committee is willing and has late entries noted on their approval form the contestant must work with the rodeo secretary who will work with the committee and stock contractors to accommodate their request.

- a. Late entries in the timed event will run first in the draw order for the specified performance or slack. Late entries in the barrel racing will run last in the draw order for the specified performance or slack.
- b. Late entries will be given no priority for set up preference.
- c: There will be a $25 late fee for any entry taken after call backs, per person if in a buddy group. Late fee will not be waived if performance is not full. (amended 2019)
- d: Any earnings made from a late entry after callbacks will not count towards the all-around or rookie standings. Will count to event(s) entered. (amended 2019)

6. Rule Change: (page 49)

R5.6 Bull Riding Day Money – will be eliminated. (amended 2019)
