DYDM Leaders

Ruth Workman (SDSG DYDM), EdM, MA, has a certificate in Spiritual Direction as well as a certificate in Supervision of Spiritual Directors. She has offered Spiritual Direction since 1995. Ruth is a teacher in the Deepening Year for Direction Ministries and a peer group leader for Spiritual Direction for Spiritual Guides years 1 and 2 through Oasis Ministries for Spiritual Development. She has a private practice in Spiritual Direction and offers individual and group Spiritual Direction to students, faculty and staff at Princeton Theological Seminary. Ruth leads Ignatian and contemplative retreats at The Sanctuary, her home in Stone Harbor, NJ.

Peer Group Leader - Mary Lou Hatcher received her SDSG certification from Oasis Ministries and holds a BA in Religious Studies from the University of Virginia as well as an MA in Religious Education from the Presbyterian School of Christian Education. She has been practicing with Quakers since 1988 and has served as clerk of the Children's Spiritual Life Committee. Mary Lou is married and has two step children, two biological children and one fabulous grandchild. In her own spiritual life Mary Lou practices a contemplative silent worship desiring a clear mind, an open heart, and a humble willingness to respond to God's presence. As a spiritual director/guide she sees herself primarily as a witness to the Spirit's leading in each of our lives and as a support for the many ways we "make space" for that divine work.
