Re: Public Information Request Received from Isaiah X. Smith; Our File No. 16257

Dear Mr. Smith:

By email dated March 5, 2017 (received on March 6, 2017) directed to the Tarrant County Hospital District ("District") and specifically addressed to Allison McCarthy, my paralegal, you made the following request:

"Please send me a copy as to the FBI and the U.S Attorney's Office comments to the Texas Attorney General's Office as to my open records request. Also please provide me with a copy as to all communication that you all had with the FBI and the U.S Attorneys [sic] Office as to my open records request. I am extremely interested in obtain copies as to all of the public records as to my open records request."

Please see the District's responses (in italics) to your request below:

1. A copy of the FBI and the U.S Attorney's Office comments to the Texas Attorney General's Office as to my open records request.

The District has no documents responsive to this request.

2. A copy of all communication that you all had with the FBI and the U.S Attorney's Office as to my open records request

Please see attached email to Colleen Plowman from Allison McCarthy dated January 4, 2017.
