Presidents Message – Brett Robinson

Greetings fellow members,

Our men's invitational has just completed. This year's version was very special to me as both of my sons took part in the festivities. Seth was my partner and Travis was Kevin Riley's partner. I have never enjoyed a better experience at our club than I did this weekend. I'm sure that Steve Riley, Sr. felt the same way as his sons joined in together as well.

As many of you already know our ballot initiatives were 50 percent successful. The $20 per month dues increase was passed by an 80 percent margin of those who voted. Leslie Davis did an excellent job preparing and communicating the facts of our financial challenges.

The C.O.B.A. portion only received a 63 percent approval from those who voted. There was a wide gap in the numbers between the dues increase and the C.O.B.A vote.

Opinions vary on why this was so. Some believe that a yes vote for one was a vote for both. Since this measure was to proceed in perpetuity, many believed this was a veiled attempt to raise dues an additional 5 percent each year.

The truth is this. As members, we need to recognize that if less than 80 percent of our operating costs are covered by our dues, the club will continue to be forced to live paycheck to paycheck. This needs to end somehow. The solution has yet to be determined. It continues to be a point of discussion and a priority moving forward.

We also recently held a meeting to reinstate our corporate memberships. Thank you to all who attended this meeting and took part in the process.

Please come out and enjoy the summer weather. Play a leisurely round of golf with your friends at the club. Enjoy a refreshing adult beverage and let the memories begin.

Thank you one and all for choosing to belong to Cold Springs Country Club. It is indeed my privilege and pleasure to serve all of you as your president.

See you at the course

From the Bar & Kitchen - Jen Bement

The May Niner of the Month tournament was won by Connie Oetinger. Connie and Melinda Coats tied with a net 33 and the tie was broken on hole No. 14. Connie recorded a 7 and Melinda had an 8.

Our team played El Macero on May 22 and we are now in second place behind El Macero. We play at Cold Springs June 26.

Putting contest: We are so lucky to have so many ladies who want to play golf and contribute to Corena Green, a program that supports junior girls golf. Each month the Niners hold a putting contest and a portion of the contributions goes to this program.

Twenty-one Niners joined the fun in May We keep track of our putts for the round. Diane Bagdonas took first with 12 putts, followed by Elaine Brannon and Midge Hass, who tied with 15. There was a three-way tie for third with Helene McFarlin, Sherry Young, and Jeri Bell each sinking 16 putts. Esther Purdie came in fourth with 17.

Thanks to all who participated and to Vearl LaBerge for managing this event.

The Niners held a putting contest during the men's invitational and raised $210. Thanks to Debbie Massaro, Pat Worley, Dee Russo and Leslie Davis for their help in making this a successful event.

Greetings golfers ... both new and veterans alike.

We have had quite a few new members join our ranks. (If you think I am talking about you ... then I probably am.)

Because we have so many new players, we have revived the IAG (men) and started a new Fun Bunch (ladies) for the Saturdays mornings when there are no scheduled tournaments.

At the time of this writing we have one under our belt after kicking off this new format on Memorial Day. A modest entry fee will be charged with no pressure to dwell on your score. The only pressure will be to have some fun and indulge in some trash talking with your friends.

Check in with the Pro Shop and let the starter know you want to participate, pay the entry and you will be paired and given a tee time. The tournament times will start at 9:30 a.m.

Here is another new fun thing we are going to try. The golf shop will be instituting a caddie-for-a-day program ... you can request any one of our pros to play either 9 or 18 holes with your group.

This is called the "Tour Caddie Program." It involves learning how the tour players deliberately and strategically manage their game under so much pressure. It is not a swing instruction day, but hopefully learning how YOU can improve your scores and understand the game a little better. You just might learn a trick shot or two along the way.

We plan on training the staff in both the format and topics in the coming weeks, with a tentative first day target of taking signups for June 11. The Pro Shop will schedule these just like tee times (one week in advance) and will schedule a rotation of pros to participate

The pros will take signups for three players to participate on Tuesdays, Wednesdays and Saturdays ... at least two days per month.

I believe we are all capable of improving at least one facet of the game every year.

I know I have done it over the last year ... my dreaded putting is now a strength and it had nothing to do with mechanics. Stay tuned!

Clubhouse update: The event center table tops are on order, and will ship June 4. We hope to have them installed by the ladies invitational. Fingers crossed!

Course update: We are in the busy summer season now so the projects will start to slow down. We know we have one semi-major repair to the maintenance wash area by the No. 9 tee. A contractor will have to do the work because we don't have the equipment to pull this off safely.

That's all for now ... see you in the fairway!

There's one simple fact about shot shape: On the road you take to playing good golf, nowhere is there a slice. You can go from hooking to good golf, but if you don't learn how to stop hitting shots with an open clubface, you won't get very far.

The unfortunate reality is that a large majority of players, possibly 90 percent, struggle with a slice. They don't have a good grip, they make a steep swing into the ball, and they don't understand how the hands work in a good release. Those things combine to produce high, weak shots to the right

GET A DRIVER THAT'S FIT FOR THE JOB

Before you make your first practice swing, you need to evaluate your equipment. Almost all slicers use a driver with too little loft because they're reacting to their high, weak ball flight. The new adjustable drivers let you increase the loft and move weight to the club head's heel. Instead of swinging a 9-degree driver and making it 10 or 11 degrees because you hold it open through impact, you want more loft so you can release your hands and turn a 10.5 driver into a 9.

SET YOUR HANDS SO THEY CAN RELEASE

Two grip mistakes make a slice almost inevitable. Many players use a grip that's too weak -- with the thumbs pointing straight down the handle. Make your grip stronger (right), so your hands are turned away from the target and your palms are parallel with each other. If you drew lines up from the base of your thumbs, they should hit the point of your collar on the right side of your shirt. In addition, gripping too tightly keeps the hands from releasing through impact. Take a soft grip.

Men's Invitational

want to personally thank each and every volunteer who participated during the men's Hangtown Invitational, July – 20. I also would like to thank the tournament committee for its hard work prior to and during the tournament.

Upcoming tournaments

We are having our normal shamble June 16 ... with a twist! If you bring a guest he will receive two mulligan shots throughout the round which could lower your team score! The entry fee will be $25 and includes a juicy treat following the round. This is one of the many ways we are trying to attract new faces to Cold Springs to show you how great we are!

Talkin Turf - Doug Jeffrey

May was definitely a busy month as we worked to ensure all the detail areas were in shape for the men's invitational. Crew issues made it more challenging. Unfortunately we received the sad news that one of our employee's daughter came down with pneumonia and passed away the week prior to the invitational. Another employee missed time as he dealt with a foot injury.

Thankfully, the May weather was on the cool side. I am sure that will change quickly as we dive into summer. So far we've had no major irrigation issues such as pumps shutting down and the never-ending minor electrical glitches in the field controllers. But it is still early. Wait until the first heat wave.

We have had to get into our diversion point in the creek to clear out gravel and large rock that washed up along the dam and blocked our intake point. While I am on the subject of water diversion - by the end of June we have to submit our water diversion reports to the water resource control board. To update you on our 2017 amounts ... we diverted a little over half of our 500 acre feet we are allotted per year.

To try and clean up the amount of annual Bluegrass seed heads/flowers on the greens we have been doing a lot of verti-cutting, grooming and topdressing. The past few weeks we have been battling some brown ring patch and fairy ring on the greens. Several fungicide applications in conjunction with spike venting and possibly another small coring aeration later this month will help knock it down and get us through. We will try to get in fairway aeration this month.

Other than that, not much else is planned except for keeping up with all the nut sedge weeds that have taken off, as well as keeping up with irrigation issues.

Welcome to our new friends & (best wishes to our departing ones)

The 18-hole ladies invitational committee is wrapping up final preparations for our annual tournament ... It's a Jungle Out There. The games kick off with an optional nine-hole, par 3 tournament on Friday and a casual get-together following golf.

Saturday and Sunday the ladies and their guests will compete in a 3-2-1 team format. Lunch will follow Saturday's round and those who signed up will then take the course for the filly race. An awards luncheon caps the festivities Sunday. Breakfast will be served both days.

Thank you to Cathie Dyer and the hard-working committee for months of hard work to make this a great three days for all of us along with our guests.

Thank you to our 18-hole ladies who volunteered to help with the men's invitational: Helen Glenn, Jane Conolly, Kathy Goldman, Leslie Davis, Karen McCaughern, Rosemary Authier and Sharon Goldsmith.

We've had a busy month starting with a Cinco de Mayo tournament May 1. It was also the start of our annual WGANC awards tournaments. Net scores for the months of May, August and September are added up and ladies with the lowest combined net score over the three months in three flights will receive medallions at our Christmas luncheon.

In addition, we held our first of two major tournaments, the President's Cup. This is a match play event ... made more difficult as we seldom compete in this format. Carol Yates won three matches to capture the cup for 2018. Heidi Caldwell was the runner-up. Congratulations to both!!

Rosemary Authier was the consolation flight winner and Charlotte Henderson took low net in the "last chance flight." In addition, Charlotte was our medalist after the first day of qualifying with a net 68.

Fairways & Greens – Jeff O'Donnell

The course is in the best shape ever. I hope you are all enjoying it.

It was sad to see watch the big pine tree on No. 10 finally die and have to be removed. There are no plans to plant a new tree or add a bunker. Just enjoy playing this great hole.

Here are a few housekeeping ideas to help keep course looking and playing its best. Park carts on the cart path as you go to the greens. Try to avoid wet areas.

Repair ball marks on the greens. An unrepaired ball mark takes about two weeks to fill back in. A properly repaired ball mark takes about two to three days to grow back in perfectly. Push the repair tool or a simple tee into the mark, pull toward the center all the way around and finish by tapping the area down with your putter.

Replace divots on the fairways and rough if they have dirt covering the roots. If not, fill the hole with sand. Less is better. Do not mound or over fill.

Every course asks that bunker rakes be replaced their own way. Our preferred way is to place the rake (after you have smoothed your divot and foot prints) in the sand with the handle lying on the grass 6 inches or so. Please don't leave a long length of the rake handle sticking up in such a way that a golfer's ball might hit it.

If you leave a few inches lying on the grass the next person does not have to walk into the bunker to retrieve the rake. Please knock the sand off your feet before walking onto the green.

These things will help us keep our wonderful course in good condition for all of us to enjoy.
