Outward Hound Dog Puzzle

Dog puzzles like this one are great for challenging a dog that need a little extra mental-stimulation in order to keep them from getting into trouble.

This particular puzzle is nice because it has a variety of challenges, including lifting, flipping, or pushing components around, rather than just one challenge. If you follow the button link below, you will see that there are a variety of puzzle levels and different challenges to choose from!

Personalized Silicone Dog Tag

Biothane leashes have been featured in my newsletters previously, but my overall choice for collars tends to lean the same. These collars are easier to clean, and thus they don't get the permanent stench that many cloth collars take on over time. There are many of these made by big dog brands, but there are also many small creators that create a wide variety of biothane collars and sell them on places like Etsy. This particular one has a lot of color options, as well as different metal options for the buckle.

Featured Pets Looking for Fur-ever Homes!

Jack

Jack is a German Shepherd Mix that was born May 3, 2023 with his 7 siblings, three of which are still looking for homes. Jack is very loyal and smart and will capture your heart with his sweet disposition. He is shy around new people and will need a family who will give him time to adjust. He is fully vaccinated, and we will pay to have him neutered when he is old enough.

If you are interested in adopting Jack, or want to check out other adoptable pets at Josie's, visit this website: <https://josiesmisfitranch.org/our-animals-to-adopt>

Davis

Davis is a 7 year old German shepherd. He loves people, fetch, and snacks. He is an incredibly sweet boy, who is working on getting healthy and ready to find his very own forever person. Davis is from Yakima, where he was found abandoned. However, it seems as though he definitely had an owner at some point because he knows how to fetch, sit, come, and is fully potty trained and crate trained. He loves all people, and will make an amazing companion.
