Brand Recommendation

Bocce's Bakery

who came home concerned after a vet trip. Curious as to what they were really feeding their dog, Bocce, the founders started making their own treats at home in order to cut down on the long ingredient list full of unpronounceable words and unnecessary additives. Their goal is to make better food with fresher, simpler, all natural ingredients.

High quality ingredients such as nitrate free bacon, peanut butter made with freshly roasted peanuts, and antibiotic free beef & chicken are used in small batches to provide only the best quality food and treats for your pup!

Personally, I recommend these for all of the above reasons but also because they come in small bites! This is great for smaller pups who may struggle with other training treats, but it's also nice for training and not leading to your pet gaining weight. They are healthy and you can use a lot of them without packing the pounds on your pup!

Toy Recommendation

Interactive Treat Ball

MENTALLY STIMULATE AND CHALLENGE YOUR DOG

PROMOTE ACTIVE AND HEALTHY FEEDING

SLOW FEEDER FOR TREATS KIBBLE

There are SO MANY variations of this same type of ball, but this is one that I have personally used before. It is a great option for high energy dogs who need mental stimulation and activities to keep them out of trouble. It is also a good option for slowing down a dog that may eat too fast for their own good!

This particular ball is available (and affordable) on Amazon, but they can also be found in most pet stores as well on popular sites like Chewy.

Featured Pets Looking for Fur-ever Homes!

Ada

My name is Ada, I am a 6 month old red coonhound. I currently weigh about 45 lbs, so I will likely be a pretty big girl when I'm all grown up. I love people and other dogs although my foster mom keeps telling me 'I'm a bit much' for some friends. My favorite activities are bird watching, trail walks, zoomies with my puppy friends and playing ball. I am very food motivated. True to my hound breed I have endless energy and like to make my strong opinions known by howling on occasion. I am very smart, I already know my name, how to come when i'm called, sit, kennel trained and I am fully potty trained. I am looking for a human who will be able to keep up with my energy to keep me from finding trouble. I will also need ongoing training and socialization to help me grow up to be a wonderful companion. My ideal home will have no kids under 10 years old, no small animals (cats, etc.) and a fenced yard.

If you are interested in adopting Ada, or want to check out other adoptable pets, visit this website: <https://www.arrfanimalrescue.org/adopt.html>

Davis

Davis is a 7 year old German shepherd. He loves people, fetch, and snacks. He is an incredibly sweet boy, who is working on getting healthy and ready to find his very own forever person. Davis is from Yakima, where he was found abandoned. However, it seems as though he definitely had an owner at some point because he knows how to fetch, sit, come, and is fully potty trained and crate trained. He loves all people, and will make an amazing companion.
