

Paul Horne

Varsity Offensive Coordinator
Offensive Line Coach

Coach Horne is starting his 21st season at Naples High School. He is a graduate of the College of William and Mary, a National Board Certified Teacher, a graduate of Walden University with a Master's Degree in Educational Leadership, a 2012 Golden Apple Recipient, a coach in the 2016 US Army All-American Football Bowl, a 2008 Collier County Social Studies Teacher of the Year, and a 2008 Naples High Coach of the Year. He was a two year starter for the Tribe at center, tackle, and tight end. He is a member of the William and Mary Walk-on Hall of Fame after earning a scholarship prior to his junior year. Coach Horne teaches Government and AP Government this year. His gorgeous and enthusiastic wife of 22 years, Shannon, continues to serve in the US Army reserves as a LT Colonel with the USMA admissions office and now is a licensed real estate agent happy to find you a home!

Coach Horne is proud of Colby who continues as a ROTC cadet and football player at Rose-Hulman Institute of Technology, and he is proud of Kirby who entered the United States Military Academy this summer. Darby, Abby, and Toby are integral members of Naples High and continue to be dedicated fans of the football team. Coach Horne has had the opportunity to coach 1 All-American, 2

Florida North-South All-Star game participants, over 20 collegiate linemen, 13 All-State linemen, and numerous All-District/All-Conference/All-County linemen. He has studied under some of the games most accomplished offensive line coaches while coaching at the University of Maryland and Penn State's football camps. Under the supervision of Coach Horne the Naples High offense continues its lethal tradition of scoring points and looks forward to leading the state classification in scoring for the third time in seven years. The running attack has a reputation of pounding opponents into submission, and we hope to utilize this attack as we march towards a state championship in Orlando.
