

Annual Lector Conference & Workshop
Saturday, November 3rd • 8:30 to 11:30 a.m.
St. Ann Catholic Church • Parish Hall

October 8, 2012

Hi (Name),

I'm pleased to invite you to join me, our priests, staff and fellow lectors for an enriching morning to launch us into the new liturgical year and Advent season.

This will be an uplifting and fun gathering with a chance to chat with old friends, and meet lots of new faces who've recently joined our lector community.

Our meeting's goal will be to give us a deeper look at what our ministry is really about, and the special opportunities we have to impact the lives of our fellow parishioners.

To achieve this, you'll be presented with...

- Advanced proclamation techniques (beyond "Speech 101") from some of the Catholic church's best known lector ministry leaders and teachers
- Qualities that distinguish great lectors from average, and raise the bar for us
- Testimonies from fellow St. Ann lectors on what our ministry means to them
- Tools and resources to help us be the best proclaimers of God's word we can be
- An update on all of St. Ann's ministry guidelines, procedures and standards

You'll also receive an information kit with the 2013 Workbook for Lectors and Gospel Readers, a new St. Ann's Lector Guidelines manual and a take-home discernment exercise to help us better answer and cultivate our calling to this ministry.

Please mark your calendar for Saturday, Nov. 3rd, 8:30 to 11:30 a.m.

If you have a conflict with this date, please call or email me right away (407-227-3602 or george@lectorresources.com) so we can arrange an alternate meeting time.

See you Nov 3rd!

Your friend in Christ,

George Miller, Lector Coordinator
