

Enrich Your Next Lector Meeting with this Uplifting Seminar . . .

Catholic Lector from the Inside-Out

Your Lectors Are More Than Meets the Ear,

and they'll be certain of it after this session.

In one hour, your lectors will gain fresh insights and inspiration to help them become the best proclaimers of God's word they've been called to be.

They'll find ways to break through the baggage and preoccupations people bring with them to Mass, help them be more attentive to the readings, and raise their thirst to hear more of God's word every Sunday.

They'll also hear thought-provoking excerpts from some of our church's top leaders on the importance of our ministry and the untapped potential of what we can really accomplish.

Just a few of the topics we'll cover ...

- Proclaiming with impact in our secular culture
- Competing with outside noise-level and distractions for the ears of your listeners
- Offering God (and your listeners) a "perfect unblemished lamb" of a proclamation
- Pope Francis' rules on preparation and delivery
- How Pope Benedict supports our ministry
- Can we be too dramatic? How much is too much?
- Washing our listeners' feet. A pastoral approach
- The better they listen, the better you proclaim
- How to make fear your best friend
- Before you even speak, you're on display
- The one thing we can never fake from the ambo
- We're not the living water, we're only the pipe
- Beware of getting too comfortable
- Signs of burnout, and how to quench it
- Is being a lector a ministry or a job?
- To proclaim from memory or not... and more

Beyond Lector Training "101" Basics

Though basic technical skills as voice projection, pacing, pausing, breathing, word emphasis and other fundamentals are important; Catholic Lector from the Inside-Out takes a step beyond the basics and covers various ways to apply these skills to make a bigger impact on the assembly.

And if this session leads your lectors to do more work on those basic skills, they'll find all the tools they need on our LectorResources.com website.
