

George Miller

Catholic Financial Writer and Consumer Advocate Presents...

“GOD Is My CFO”

An uplifting, insightful and fun presentation to give you newfound optimism about your financial future

In today’s cloudy financial world, we cannot rely on the opinions of worldly experts alone.

With all the good financial advice and info at our fingertips today, there’s also a glut of bad advice that can cause us to spend more, save less, invest poorly and put our financial futures in jeopardy.

But we can avoid the bad, and embrace the good more often when we tap the well of God’s wisdom — In this eye-opening talk, you’ll see how you can...

- ▶ SLIM yourself (spend less, invest more) en route to building a great nest egg for yourself
- ▶ Avoid the Seven Deadly “Money” Sins that block us from achieving financial freedom and peace
- ▶ Stay privy to those in pursuit of our credit lines, savings, home equity and even our possessions.
- ▶ Hold your head high among wealthier people and NEVER be ashamed of what you don’t have
- ▶ Avoid the killer disease of Lifestyle Creep
- ▶ Be a “Happy Alien” in our spendthrift culture that promotes love of money and spending
- ▶ Live your beautiful God-given life, free from the destructive preoccupations of money
- ▶ Start looking "down" the ladder with thanks more often than "up" the ladder with envy
- ▶ Stop being overwhelmed by the mystique and day- to-day frenzy of the financial markets
- ▶ Find a trusted financial advisor without being swayed by family, friends, and savvy sales tactics

From Rocky Roads to Smooth Waters...

George will take you through his personal journey from financial frolic as an invincible “yuppie” in his thirties and forties, to a demolished career and near homelessness at age 50, and with the help of God and his 52-year loving wife, Carol, fighting their way back to the state of solvency they enjoy today.

You’ll laugh, learn and shake your head in amazement as you walk with George through his financial foul-ups, smart moves, dumb moves, and final healing and comeback strategies.

The insights in George’s talk, backed by the ironclad tenets from God’s Book can launch you to a brighter financial life than you may have ever envisioned.

This guidebook is included in the workshop. It is also optionally available to keynote session attendees.

Conflict-Free Presentations

George gives no sales pitches on financial products or services, and is not associated with any investment or financial service firm. His purpose is to encourage people to rely more on Biblical guidelines to improve their financial lives, and equip them with a keen awareness of the money behaviors, attitudes and traps that can wreak havoc on our financial lives.

More on George

George's years in financial service as a securities broker, financial planner, columnist, seminar leader, client communications advisor and investor relations specialist gave him deep insight into the financial needs, concerns and sentiments of today's Americans at all rungs of the economic ladder. His clients ranged from high rollers who made it big financially, to those who worked two and three jobs to pay their bills, and all between.

Awards. In 2011, he was honored for his extraordinary dedication to his church community by serving in multiple ministries including Lector of The Word, bible study and faith group leader, Parish Pastoral Council, (RCIA) Rite of Christian Initiation facilitator, Habitat for Humanity, "Christ Renews" retreat team and Eucharistic Minister.

On the Lite Side. He's a past marathon runner, swimmer, cyclist, jazz piano buff and joyfully married 52 years with three fantastic grandsons (son and daughter-in-law are pretty great too)

Attendee/Client Comments....

"George, Thank you for taking time from your schedule to encourage the staff of "Man In The Mirror." Everyone enjoyed our time with you yesterday. You are a blessing!" Daphne Mayer Keys, Executive Asst. to Patrick Morley, Ph.D.

"Thank you George, for your excellent presentation at our recent annual meeting in Palm Beach. Your evaluations were very good. I hope that you will let me call upon you again for another presentation at one of my other medical groups." Shelburn Wilkes, Wilkes Management Associates.

"Mr. Miller, your presentation on maximizing retirement income was well prepared. We are most thankful for your taking time to join us and share your thoughts." Chevron Retirees Association

"George's financial expertise and strong writing skills were an asset to our company. He is able to present complex financial subjects in a lively, entertaining and informative manner." Don Philpott, President, Mediawise Communications U.S., Inc.
