LIZBETH BENACQUISTO

Lizbeth Benacquisto is a Republican member of the Florida State Senate, representing the 30th District, which is based in Charlotte and Lee Counties, since 2012. She was a candidate in the special election for United States Congress in the 19th District of Florida.

Benacquisto was born in Rockville Centre, New York in 1967 and moved to Florida in 1978, where she attended Palm Beach Atlantic University and worked as a realtor and marketing consultant. She served as a Wellington Village Councilwoman from 2002 to 2010.

In 2010, incumbent Democratic State Senator Dave Aronberg opted against seeking another term in the State Senate, instead choosing to run for Attorney General of Florida. Benacquisto ran to succeed him, and narrowly defeated State Representative Sharon J. Merchant and Mike Lameyer in the Republican primary. In the general election, Benacquisto faced off against Kevin J. Rader, a State Representative and the Democratic nominee. The district spanned from West Palm Beach on the Gold Coast to Cape Coral on the Sun Coast. In the end, following a toughly-fought campaign, Benacquisto defeated her opponent by a surprisingly wide margin, winning 54% of the vote to pick up the seat for the Republican Party.

When Florida Senate districts were reconfigured in 2012, Benacquisto ran for re-election in the 30th District, which included parts of the old 27th District that she had represented, but was not where her home in Wellington was located. Regardless, she won her party's nomination unopposed, and faced off against Democratic nominee Debbie Jordan in the general election. In the end, she was overwhelmingly re-elected, receiving 62% of the vote.

NEWSLETTER OF LEE REPUBLICAN WOMEN FEDERATED

Associated with the Florida Federation of Republican Women and the National Federation of Republican Women.

LETTER FROM THE PRESIDENT

*Doris Cortese
LRWF President*

At long last our presidential primary is over and the voters in Florida have made their choice. I want to remind you that in August we have another primary for many offices... Federal, State and Local and our state senators and representatives will also be up for re-election. Not only is it critical that we elect a Republican US Senator to replace Marco Rubio, but It is vital that we retain the Congress and Senate. Our support and prayers are critical for us to keep our country, state and Lee County filled with conservative officials.

During the coming months, we will have many candidates at our meetings as speakers, just as we did in March with Lieutenant Governor Carlos Lopez-Cantera. We will also have candidates as part of a forum, as we will in April with Supervisor of Elections. I urge you to attend these meetings and bring guests to attend with you. When you come, please listen with an open heart and mind, and then make an informed decision. It is necessary to keep our country conservative and safe.

On a lighter note, spring is here and we are having beautiful southwest Florida weather. It is time for all of us to get outdoors and enjoy the sunshine. My dog is spending his afternoons lying in the sun on our lanai and I am tempted to follow his example. Have a delightful month and enjoy our lives here in beautiful southwest Florida.

Doris Cortese
President, LRWF

MEMBER CANDIDATE OF THE MONTH

Sharon Harrington was born and raised in Cleveland, Ohio and moved to Fort Myers in 1975. She attended Cuyahoga Community College in Cleveland and Edison Community College in Fort Myers majoring in Accounting and Business Administration.

Prior to her employment with the Lee County Supervisor of Elections Office she spent 24 years in management positions for a variety of businesses both in Ohio and Florida.

Sharon began her employment with the Supervisor of Elections on April 3, 1989 as Fiscal Officer/Human Resources Director and worked very closely with Philinda Young, the previous Supervisor. She has worked in all departments of the Elections Office and was a part of the transition teams that worked on the countywide conversion to the touch screen voting systems in 2002 and the optical scan system in 2008.

She was promoted to Assistant Supervisor-Finance/HR in December of 2002. Sharon was appointed to fulfill the unexpired term of Philinda Young by Governor Jeb Bush on January 20, 2004, and took office on February 16, 2004. She was elected to the position in November of 2004. Sharon received her state certification in Elections Administration July 28, 2006.

Civic organization participation includes: Southwest Florida Crime Stoppers Board of Directors where she served as chairman for 10 years; Life Member and Kiwanis Lady of Kiwanis International, currently a member of the Kiwanis Club of Fort Myers-South and the Fort Myers Women's Community Club.

Sharon was elected to Who's Who Worldwide for Business and Professional Leaders and was awarded the ABWA Woman of the Year award.

JEANNETTE RANKIN, Republican from Montana, became the first woman elected to the US House of Representatives. She took her seat, at age 36, on March 4, 1917 three years before other women were given the vote. An active pacifist, she and 49 others voted against the U.S. involvement in World War I. Having issues with the powerful mining interests in her home state, she was defeated in 1918. She then became a delegate to the Women's International Conference on Permanent Peace in Zurich, Switzerland. Ten years later, she organized the Georgia Peace Society in Georgia where she had purchased a home. Following her second successful election, she reentered Congress in 1941. She was the only legislator to vote against a declaration of war against Japan. Consequently, her career was damaged beyond repair and she did not seek reelection.

Born June 11, 1880, she was the oldest of seven. She was graduated from the University of Montana in 1902 and began a career as a teacher. Six years later, she entered what is now the Columbia School of Social Work in New York City. She moved to Spokane, Washington, where she joined the suffrage movement. After that state gave women the vote, she returned to Montana to work there for women's suffrage which was obtained in November of 1914. After WWII, she retired to her Georgia farm. Always the pacifist, she became active again leading the Jeannette Rankin Brigade of 500,000 women protesting the Viet Nam war. She died on May 18, 1973, at age 92, in Carmel, California. The money left from her estate was the base of the Jeanette Rankin Foundation which, since her death, has provided educational funds of 1.8 million to over 700 women. "A Single Woman" is the film biography of Ms. Rankin.

For April's Book Chat, we will discuss the movie, Trumbo. The story centers on the streamlined account of the Hollywood blacklist and the fiercely independent writer, Dalton Trumbo. He once commanded high fees, but because of the blacklist, he had to secretly churn out cheap scripts to support his family. His dedication eventually helped break the blacklist and expose its hollowness. This is a stark reminder of how conservatives are currently assaulted in Hollywood.

We will meet at the home of Linda Suter on April 6, from 2:00- 4:00. The movie is available on DVD and at netflix. Check the library, it was released on February 16.

Come and enjoy meeting with like-minded ladies for good conversation and snacks.

Please afford the hostess your consideration by responding, so she may plan accordingly.

LEGISLATIVE UPDATE

By Jeanne Dozier, LRWF Legislative Chair

March 11, 2016 was the conclusion of the the 60th day of the Legislative session. Constitutionally, this is the scheduled last day. All of the real work on the budget for next year was completed earlier in the week; however, the Legislature is not allowed to vote on the budget until after a 72 hour cooling off period. The final budget report was printed on Tuesday March 8, 2016. Passing the budget is Constitutionally the only item that must be done; however, each member of the legislature has other priority bills that they work on. Final passage on most bills (where they actually go to the governor) happens during the last two days of the session. Often, there are issues that either the House or the Senate want more than the other. To get everything done, bills are piled into "trains" in order to facilitate the horse trading of... I'll take your bill if you will take mine. When all of the business is done, the Legislature traditionally has a sine die ceremony. The members of each house march out of their chambers and gather in the lobby between the chambers on the 4th floor of the Capitol. Usually, the Governor will join them with the Speaker of the House and President of the Senate in honored positions. The Sargent At Arms of each of the houses each hold white handkerchiefs which they drop at the exact same time to signify the end of business for the year. Afterward, the Governor, Speaker and President typically make some speeches. When the end of session is less than cordial, the ceremony is occasionally lost altogether.

Please find below information about what bills passed during this session and a brief explanation about each .

The document below shows bills that passed this session in their final "enrolled" form. The last two bills to be enrolled were finalized on March 14, 2016.

In a surprising move largely because the budget had not been delivered to the Governor, yet, the Governor's office announced March 15th that he will sign the budget and provided a list of over $250 million in project vetoes. Nothing in this veto list would require a special session to continue funding for any standing department of the state, so legislative activity will almost certainly die down until after the election with the possible exception of the Seminole Compact or other nagging issue.

In the event there is any activity regarding any unfinished legislation I will write about that during the next few months.

A Prayer for America

*Father in Heaven,
We, the people, in the land of the free and
the home of the brave,
desperately need You.
Oh that we would leave our ways
of seeking to be blessed and instead seek to bless others.
We beg you for Your guidance and wisdom
for our leaders.
We ask You to protect our land from enemies, both within and without.
And we praise you for the blood of Your Son.
May Your plan be the desire of our nation.*

Amen.
