NEWSLETTER OF LEE REPUBLICAN WOMEN FEDERATED

Associated with the Florida Federation of Republican Women and the National Federation of Republican Women.

Doris Cortese, LRWF President

Ladies,

Seven of our members had the wonderful experience of going to Tally Days which is the statewide spring Federated convention on March 28-31.

Being a first time attendee, I had no idea what to expect. Spending time with 100 dedicated Republican women for three days is like a little bit of heaven here on earth.

Our main speaker was Douglas Wood, author of Presidential Intentions. The book is fictional about a woman running for president. He was very interesting. The next speaker gave us a lot of information on how few women elected officials there are...only one female Republican in the US Congress. As Federated members, we need to encourage qualified (not Hillary Clinton or Elizabeth Warren) women to run for office.

Many of the state senators and representatives met with us and explained what bills they are introducing and why they feel the bill is necessary. Donna Clarke took us on a tour of the Capital Building, and late Monday, we met with Lizbeth Benacquisto and three of our state reps...Caldwell, Eagle and Rodriques. They talked extensively about what they are doing. There was a State Representative, Jennifer Sullivan, who spoke to us. She is only 23 and is so vibrant and intelligent...a real role model for our young women.

Our own Carmen Salomé was given an award as outstanding regional director. Congratulations, Carmen!!!!

Pat yourselves on the back, ladies. Our club was given the Paint the State Red award for the hardest working Federation in the state during 2014. It was quite an honor.

The fall convention will be October 9 - 12 in Orlando. Since it is closer to home, and the rooms will be only $99.00, I would encourage all of you who can attend to do so.

There is a possibility that Marco Rubio and another presidential candidate plus our own Governor Scott will be speaking. It should be a great weekend.

Respectfully,

Doris Cortese
LRWF, President

MEMBER OF THE MONTH

Rosemary Lewis has been a registered Republican since coming of voting age. She moved from Akron, Ohio to sunny Florida nine years ago. S he has a Master's Degree in Nursing and taught nursing students at FSW State College. Before moving to Florida, she worked at an Area Agency on Aging as a High Risk Case Management Supervisor. Her background is in Cardiac and Gerontology.

Rosemary worked as a poll worker and an active volunteer for the 2012 Republican presidential race. She was the LRWF Program Chairman last year and is the First Vice President of LRWF.

She looks forward to serving our club in the future to promote education and advancement of the Republican Party membership. She enjoys reading and outdoor activities with family and friends.

Thanks Rosemary for helping us "Paint the State Red!"

MEMBERSHIP

EACH ONE, ASK ONE....

Membership involves the whole club! Membership involves you!
(A roster of members and their guests will be kept throughout 2015!
At the end of the year, we will use these names for a prize drawing.)

You've noticed we've had some wonderful programs the past year and I just bet you've mentioned them to your family and friends.

Did you, however, forget to invite those same folks to attend one of our meetings? Our LRWF bylaws permit men who are registered Republicans to become Associate Members. Why not ask your husband or partner to attend a meeting and join as an Associate.

We'd love to see more fellows at our functions. Dues are only $15.00 a year. If you have a girl friend in another federated Republican Womens club, she also can become an Associate of our club for $15.00. The money collected for this type of membership stays in our local unit.

Since women love competition, we've established the EACH ONE, ASK ONE campaign this year...If you invite a guest who joins our club, you will be put into a drawing later in the year. I promise, the prize will be nice. See you at the April meeting and bring your fellow!

The Great LRWF Shootout!

Thanks to everyone who supported our 2015 LRWF BBQ SHOOTOUT! We made a profit of $1,935.00. Paul Flores was the lucky winner of the Glock 26.

A special thanks for the outstanding work of our fundraising committee for this event. Pat Randolph, Chairman, Renie Frank, Barbara Koeplinger, Linda Loudin and Kerri Tonkin. These ladies worked very hard organizing this event. Pat Randolph had a special talent of organizing and sharing her enthusiasm throughout.

Thanks to all the members who donated and solicited items for our raffle. The BBQ lunch catered by Reuben's was delicious. The Deputy Sheriffs at the gun range were informative and helpful and tried to make everyone have an enjoyable experience. A shoutout of thanks to them!

CARMEN SALOMÉ WRITES HER FIRST EDITORIAL

As you know, if you read last month's newsletter, Carmen Salomé was appointed to the News Press editorial board. We thought you might be interested in seeing her very first editorial. The text below is from her original copy. Please read below.

"Self-reliance is the only road to true freedom, and being one's own person is its ultimate reward" ....Patricia Sampson

When my parents came to the United States from Puerto Rico, all they knew was hard work and to rely on the community for support. Our faith, family and community were central in our lives. I have always believed that our purpose was to help others. For me, helping others is evident in the projects I have become involved with. Seven years ago, I helped start a GED tutoring ministry at my church, because I knew first hand an education can open doors to better job opportunities. As a single mother of two children, with only a high school diploma, I struggled working minimum wage jobs to pay the rent and feed the boys. For a short time I also utilized public assistance. I could have stayed on that track like so many others in my neighborhood. But I wanted to provide a life better than peanut butter and government cheese for my sons. Inspired by Christian values and a strong work ethic, I set out to change my situation. I searched for agencies that would help me with work training. It wasn't until I completed a medical secretary course that I secured a better paying job in a large healthcare facility. This opportunity exposed me to working alongside people with professional degrees that saw great potential in me. One such professional encouraged me to seek a college education. I discovered with each college degree I completed, another door to a position with more responsibility and better pay opened. The road ahead was not easy and certainly not cheap. I had to obtain student loans for the training and then again for college. I admit the financial burden was heavy, but looking back, the reward of accomplishment and self confidence far outweighed that burden.

I can remember working as a bilingual secretary for a school district up north and was saddened to see the number of Latino families on government assistance as a way of life. Families that moved into the area from various Hispanic countries, would come to enroll their children in school and ask for the necessary paperwork verification needed to take to the welfare office. Some arrived to our offices before we opened at 8 am; some arriving by bus or taxi; but all wanting the same verification documentation. It was sad to see that much energy put into staying dependent. I asked one mom, why she moved to our area with no family around to help her. She responded she moved to our area because the welfare benefits there were higher. So in essence, she got a raise. In another interview of a pregnant 13 year old girl, I asked her what she was going to do to support herself and her baby. She answered in Spanish, "Well ...welfare of course." There were no agencies to help people, new to the area, see their human potential; that there IS a future! Many of these people believed that they could not overcome language barriers or lack of education. I often would tell our clients, "I am no different than you. If I could change my situation, so can you."

I am blessed that I have achieved much in my life, and I want to help others find the same success. That's why I am passionate about the Freedom and Virtue Institute's Self Reliance Clubs. The Self Reliance Clubs emphasize to students the connection between reward and accomplishment and relying on their individual gifts to create their destiny. Currently, 507 students participate in Self Reliance Clubs in Lee and Collier county schools. 85% of the children participating are Hispanic. This initiative is impacting a large segment of our community! What better way to impact the cycle of poverty in the lives of these children than to encourage and nurture the inherent gifts we all have that allow us to move forward and succeed.

I challenge the Hispanic leaders of our community to get involved in this initiative. Consider joining the board, become a sponsor of the annual golf tournament fundraiser, write about it in your Spanish newspapers and report on it in the Spanish local TV news. If you are a Hispanic business owner, support the children of the Self Reliance club by mentoring – share with them how you achieved your goals and succeeded in business - or fund a work project. The students need to know you care about them enough to help them be the best they can be. Frederick Douglass, former slave turned statesman, once said "if there is no struggle, there is no progress." Isn't it preferable to teach a child that they can earn the things they need through work, saving and patience rather than expect "free stuff?" They don't need a hand out, they need a hand up!

The annual Self Reliance Club Charity Golf Classic is March 19th at Old Corkscrew Golf Course. Don't miss this opportunity to positively impact the lives of the children in SWF!

EVERYBODY WINS FUND RAISER!!

Ladies, we have an amazing year-round fundraiser where everybody wins! Our members can purchase everyday products from other LRWF members, knowing the profits go to the club's general fund. Our members with home-based businesses market their products and services on our new website. They will then donate their profits from direct member-to-member purchases to the club's general fund. The vendors will have increased personal volume, which helps them, and our club can have fundraising efforts and results year-round, whether in a campaign or non-campaign year. Like we said, "Everybody wins"!

For more details on becoming a fundraising vendor and website exposure, contact Rosemary Lewis at 284-6477 or email at lewis.rose@gmail.com.

LEGISLATIVE UPDATE

Update on the 2015 Legislative Session

The 2015 Legislative Session has passed the half way point and this week, the budget should be passed out of the House and the Senate so negotiations can begin! Remember – Passing the Budget is the only action the legislature must take by May 1, 2015. If they run out of time, the session may be extended or a special session scheduled. When a special session is scheduled the specific subject (for example Health care funding) of the session is also listed in the notice.

Currently, the big money issues are Education (funding per pupil), Health Care (Hospital uninsured patient grants, health insurance for 100%- 138% federal poverty level), Implementation of Amendment 1 (doc stamp dollars for land maintenance, restoration and purchase). The House and the Senate have allocated these dollars very differently so there could be lengthy negotiations as they work through the approximately $77 Billion budget. Next month we will review some of the Bills the Legislature is passing. For specific bills you may go to these websites for current status, sponsors, and staff analysis.

THE CRUSADES VS. JIHAD AND ISIS

Many like to compare the Muslim invasion of Isis performing Jihad in the world today to the hateful crusades of the Middle Ages. Some even like to use that as the reason that we have so many terrorists in the world today. Somehow, they think the problem lies with the Christians. If you have heard these things before and want to know the "rest of the story," click on the link below.

VOLUNTEERS CALLING ALL HOURS

Ladies and Gentlemen, have you volunteered to work from July 2013 through June 2015 for the campaigns of any state, county or city elected officials? Have you volunteered to work for the state or county? Have you volunteered to work at a precinct or ward? Have you volunteered and participated in a county, district, or state party convention? Have you perhaps worked on a committee or served on our board for Lee Republican Women Federated?

Every two years our club submits campaign volunteer hours to the National Federation of Republican Women to participate in the Campaign Award program with a chance at recognition and a possible award. Hours spent working for our club are also recognized through Achievement Awards. If you have volunteered doing any of the above, please forward those hours spent doing such work to me, kerri.tonkin@gmail.com, by the first of May 2015, if not sooner. You can also bring them to the next few meetings and I will be there to collect them. There is a PDF document on the LRWF website with an explanation sheet and spreadsheet for you to use to document your hours. To find the explanation and spreadsheet, CLICK HERE.

Thank you,

Kerri Tonkin
Elections Chair

LEE MEMORIAL HEALTH SYSTEMS UPDATE

By Donna Clarke, Lee Memorial Health System Board Member

What the hospital board has done this year to meet capacity demands:

- Opened 42 additional beds at Cape Coral Hospital
- Created new surge overflow holding areas
- Added Tele-Stroke capabilities
- Hired 12 Primary Care Physicians and 13 Primary care extenders in 2014 (25 total)
- Opened a new Lee Convenient Care near HealthPark
- Fast Track processes implemented in all four Emergency Depts along with creative ideas to decompress Emergency Departments and improve patient flow
- Emergency Dept Physicians working in Lee Convenient Cares to extend hours
- Working with Hospitalists on Average Length of Stay and early discharges
- Several Lean Value Stream Mapping events completed across the System working on throughput and patient flow
- Cape Coral Hospital became a Primary Stroke Center to help keep patients in the Cape
- Continued close Partnership/Collaboration/Communication with Lee County EMS
- Leveraged the LMHS Transfer Center to level out volumes throughout the health system
- Graduate Medical Program up and running
- Many Lee Physician Group offices freeing up same day appointments to help decompress emergency departments
- New Federally Qualified Health Clinic approved earlier this month will increase outpatient access
- New Capacity Committee formed to brainstorm and execute solutions in tandem with key physicians and staff
- New System Surge Disaster Plan and structure created; lead by Dr. Krivenko and activated if the System is significantly over capacity

During 2015 for the 2016 winter season, with Board approval, plans are to:

- Build additional inpatient holding areas at Lee Memorial Hospital, Gulf Coast Medical Center and HealthPark (45 total beds)
- Institute a new Community Care Coordination program to help navigate patients to the right healthcare setting and decompress the emergency departments
- Recruit and hire a goal of 27 primary care providers
- Open a new Lee Convenient Care Center in Fort Myers, an Outpatient Center in Cape Coral and possibly a Lee Physician Group rotating specialty clinic
- Explore potential telehealth primary care visits.

In Spring 2017, the board anticipates the completion of construction at Golisano Children's Hospital (adds 45 adult beds at HealthPark) and in late 2017 we anticipate completion of South Lee medical campus, giving us additional outpatient and emergency department capacity.
