

Feasts of the Lord

We've been celebrating the Feasts of the Lord with thousands of other Christians for many years. These celebrations have enriched our lives and the lives of others beyond measure. God is faithful to keep His appointment with us at these appointed Feasts.

The hours has come when Christians should know and understand, at least in part, the meaning of the annual Feasts. They constitute a beautiful “type and pattern” for the Church. This is the time for Biblical truth. When God's revelation strikes, the Holy Spirit leads and guides us into all truth and reveals things to come. (John 16:13)

We can derive great spiritual benefit and comfort by studying the types in the Old Testament, and discover where they apply to us. The scriptures make it clear, “all these things happened unto them for examples (as a figure of type): and are written for our admonition, upon whom the ends of the world are come.” (I Corinthians 10:11)

The Order of the Feasts

The annual Feasts of the Lord begin with Passover, then Pentecost, and end with Feast of Tabernacles.

Feast of Passover – Feast of Unleavened Bread

Feast of Pentecost – Feast of Weeks and First Fruits

Feast of Tabernacles – Feast of Booths, Ingathering

In the near future we intend to deal at some length with each of the three Feasts, and the vents surrounding them, to show the manner they have been fulfilled and will yet be fulfilled in the believers experience. These Feasts have impacted God's people and mankind for centuries.

Look for studies about these Feasts soon. They will be in PDF form so you can download and save them if you desire. We will begin with the Feast of Passover.

Other Resources:

The Feast of Tabernacles, George H. Warnock, author