WHICH BEHAVIOURS ARE YOU WILLING TO WORK WITH?
<input type="checkbox"/> Separation anxiety – crying, drooling, digging at doors, destructive behaviours (need to be kenneled)
<input type="checkbox"/> Excitability – jumping on you, running at you, licking your face, jumping on furniture, running in the house
<input type="checkbox"/> Food aggression – guarding food/treats/bones/toys, growling & snapping at other dogs &/or people near food
<input type="checkbox"/> Obedience – teach the dog basic house manners (sit, stay, come)
<input type="checkbox"/> Walking on leash – basic walking on a leash without pulling or chewing on the leash
<input type="checkbox"/> Reaction to dogs or cats – growling, lunging, snapping, stalking
<input type="checkbox"/> Barking/Vocalization – no barking at random times
<input type="checkbox"/> House training – going to the bathroom outside, staying off furniture (if that's what you prefer)
<input type="checkbox"/> Sleeping through the night – not crying in their bed/kennel
<input type="checkbox"/> Fearfulness & trusting humans – fear of being handled, fear of everyday sounds (ie. vacuum)
<input type="checkbox"/> Child-friendly – don't jump up, don't run at, gentle play, no mouthing the kids
*We will give you the tools &amp; knowledge we have gathered to help you with any of these behaviours.

 FURBABIES FUREVER HOMES RESERVES THE RIGHT TO REFUSE ANY APPLICATION.

"I understand that Furbabies Furever Homes is not able to guarantee the health, history, or behaviour of any dog. For many of these dogs, my home will be the first one they've ever been in and it's my responsibility to show them what it is to be an owned dog. The fostering of a dog should not be impulsive, but rather a carefully thought out decision which will ensure a rewarding experience for both me and the dog."
