

forest fusion

Suitable for all early years/primary educators who want to enrich their outdoor provision, this is a flexible package that supports settings & schools in developing a nature based curriculum.

Ideal for Inset and team building days.

Objectives

- To facilitate practitioners in maximising child-led learning opportunities in natural surroundings.
- To enable practitioners and teachers to experience a forest school session from their own perspective.
- To enable practitioners and teachers to feel the impact upon their own well-being and confidence.
- To experience risk & challenge.
- To develop positive relationships within the team and beyond.
- To develop a connection & love for nature that transforms practice & teaching.
