

workshop

creating visuals

National Teaching School designated by

National College for Teaching & Leadership

This is a hands-on session for practitioners and parents who have a child who would benefit from using visual aids.

Learn how to create personalised visuals that can then be introduced into your home or setting.

Objectives

- To create effective personalised visual aids to support a child's communication and understanding.
- Choice boards
- Visual timetable
- Task strips eg dressing, toileting/basket time sequence.

Delivered by

Audrey Murch is a SEN Outreach practitioner, working with children in their home, pre-school or school settings. She is also a Thomas Outreach Programme (TOP) worker and has a wealth of knowledge and experience of working with children with social communication or autistic spectrum difficulties.
