

New Trade Statement

(Please read before bringing in books)

Please understand, we can only support trading and buying books which will contribute to our business of selling books. Trade credit now is only good for one day, the day you bring in the books. We purchase books for cash on Fridays only. If you would rather just donate your books we will give you a coupon for your next visit.

We sell, trade, and buy GENTLY used books. Books must be in very good or better condition for us to even consider. Please DO NOT bring dusty, dirty, or moldy books into the store. Our Trade Statement can change at any time.

Trade Credit Rules:

- Trade credit has no cash value.
- We do not accept books for trade on Saturdays or Thursdays.
- Extra consideration is given for books purchased here at Browser Books within the past 6 months.
- Trade credit is good only for the day you bring in the books. If you have old trade credit it needs to be used within 6 months or it will be deleted.
- It is solely at our discretion if a book is accepted for trade credit.
- Trade credit amount can be used as follows- 100% toward the purchase of used books or 20% toward the purchase of new books.
- Any sale, coupons or Special Discounts are not available to use when using trade credit.
- We calculate Trade Credit while you wait. Any books we do not accept can be taken with you or we will donate them for you. (books which are not in sellable condition are discarded)
- Trade Credit rules can change at any time.

Selling Books Rules:

- We purchase books on Fridays only. (Current textbooks can be brought in most days except Saturdays & Thursdays)
- Extra consideration is given for books purchased here at Browser Books within the past 6 months.
- We offer one amount for all the books you bring in.
- If there are books which you think have a special value point them out.
- You can only bring in one batch of books per day.
- In general, we offer more cash for new release books.
- If you would rather get trade credit than cash, you will receive two times the trade credit of your cash offer. Trade credit must be used the same day.

Donating books:

If you would rather just donate your books you can bring them in anytime and we will give you a coupon you can use on your next visit.

Thanks,
