

About the Firm

The Law Office of Bernard B. Pound, Attorney at Law was started in late 2016 by Bernie Pound, an attorney admitted in New York for over 20 years. Prior to founding the firm, Mr. Pound managed large, complex intellectual property cases for more than 18 years at an AMLAW 200 law firm.

During that time, as Litigation Case Manager, Mr. Pound took more than 30 cases to trial in courtrooms across the country including California, Texas, Delaware, New Jersey & New York. From pre-trial preparation through appeal, he has seen it all and is able to leverage that experience to manage your complex litigation.

Mr. Pound earned his JD from Hofstra University School of Law and was admitted to the New York bar in 1996. Mr. Pound is also admitted to practice before the US Supreme Court (2000) and the US District Court for the Southern District of New York (2011).

What they are saying about Bernie:

“There's no one I know more competent to deal with the nuts and bolts of legal practice.”

AMLAW 200 partner (retired)

“It is hard to imagine trial without him.”

AMLAW 100 counsel

“Bernie is a first-rate litigation case manager...No attorney ever felt comfortable at trial without Bernie as part of the team.”

AMLAW 50 partner

Let us manage the details, so you can focus on the big picture

Today, it is harder to find attorneys with significant litigation experience. And those that have it are too busy to manage the many small details of large complex litigations.

At the Law Office of Bernard B. Pound, we have the experience and ability to manage every detail, allowing senior litigators to concentrate on the high-level, high-value legal work their clients expect.

Whether joining your team early in the case or on the eve of trial, we are able to quickly grasp the legal issues central to your matter. With our expertise and experience, we provide cool-headed management in the often stressful world of high-stakes litigation.
