Dear Friend of Big Brothers Big Sisters of the Central Blue Ridge,

We hope you will join us at our 5th annual Bowl For Kids' Sake on May 4th – this year the theme is “Star Wars.” We guarantee you’ll have the most fun you’ve ever had in a bowling alley, all while supporting mentoring for kids in the Charlottesville area.

Who: More than 300 community supporters and volunteers

What: Form a team of six adults, eat, drink, win prizes, bid on auction items, meet celebrity guests (including Cavalier Basketball Head Coach Tony Bennett!), visit the photo booth, partake in the silent auction, and enjoy 3 hours of unlimited bowling, all while helping kids in the Charlottesville area find Big Brothers and Big Sisters! We’ll have prizes for strikes, spares, gutter balls, and everything in between. There will also be an award for the best team spirit, so make sure to come in your best Star Wars-themed costume!

When: Thursday, May 4, 2017 6:30pm – 9:30pm

Where: AMF Kegler’s Lanes, 2000 Seminole Trail, 22901

Why: Proceeds from Bowl for Kids' Sake will support Big Brothers Big Sisters of the Central Blue Ridge’s mission to transform the lives of children facing adversity through professionally supported, one-to-one mentoring relationships. BBBS currently serves more than 200 local children, but with a growing waiting list, your support of this event will help us be able to say to more of them: “You have a Big!”

How: Complete the following form to purchase a lane for $500 or contact Chelsea Bhimji at cbhimji@blueridgebigs.org to purchase by card. Lane purchase includes three hours of unlimited bowling, shoe rentals, and 2 pitchers of beer. Lanes can accommodate 1 to 6 bowlers.

See you on the lanes! (and May the 4th be with you!)
