CHÂTEAU DE LA GRAVELLE Muscadet Sèvre et Maine Sur Lie 2015

$18.95

Muscadet Sèvre et Maine, Loire, France

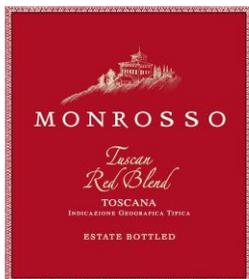

CSPC# 527192

March 31, 2018

Château de la Gravelle is a historic property located in Gorges in the heart of the Nantes, and it is one of the oldest vineyards in the Muscadet region! Originally, the property was 300 ha, but the property was split up during the French Revolution. The vineyard is now 17 ha planted on a hillside with an iconic windmill typical of the Nantes area.

The Melon de Bourgogne vines for this Muscadet are 65 years old, resulting in very low yields and incredible concentration. The vineyard has an uncommon terroir as its subsoil is composed of a volcanic rock called "gabbro" covered with a 40 cm layer of clay. The particularity of this soil gives the wine a pronounced minerality and citrus notes. The wine is vinified "sur lie" or "on its lees" throughout the winter until bottling at the end of March. It is never racked which allows the conservation of a small amount of carbon dioxide giving the wine a small "perlant" or "slight fizz".

This Muscadet is appreciated for its young, vivid, dry and fruity side that makes it the perfect companion for fish, oysters, and shellfish, or it can be enjoyed on its own as an aperitif.

CASTELLO DI MONSANTO Monrosso IGT Toscana Red Blend 2015

$19.95

Tuscany, Italy

CSPC# 541029

March 31, 2018

The Monsanto winery is owned by the Bianchi family. Father, Fabrizio and daughter, Laura manage the Winery today. Castello di Monsanto owns some of the best vineyard sites within the appellation and is home to the largest reserves of Chianti Classico in Tuscany. In 1962, Fabrizio Bianchi founded the winery. That same year, pioneering Monsanto was the first winery to make a Chianti Classico Cru from the single "Il Poggio" vineyard and worked to eliminate white grapes from the Chianti Classico Riserva blend. Further, in 1981 Monsanto harvested the first 100% Cabernet

Sauvignon, Nemo, from the Il Mulino vineyard.

The Monrosso is a delicious red blend of Syrah, Cabernet Sauvignon, Merlot and Sangiovese, aged for 6 months in neutral Slovenian oak plus an additional 6 months in bottle. The wine is soft and elegant with flavours of red berry fruit and a satisfying, lingering finish. This wine pairs well with antipasto, burgers, and Italian specialties.

CAROL SHELTON Coquille Blanc 2015

$29.95

Paso Robles, California

CSPC# 545681

March 3, 2018

With the exotic complexity and food friendliness of a white Rhône-style blend, this is a “red-drinker’s white,” a complex alternative to the more one-dimensional white varietal wines like Chardonnay and Sauvignon Blanc. It is the perfect complement to its namesake shellfish, as well as chicken or pork dishes with buttery-creamy sauces. *Coquille is pronounced “ko-keel” and it is French for shellfish or scallop, like the scallop shells on the Shelton family coat of arms.

QUINTA DA DEVESA 40-Year-Old Tawny Port

$154.00

Porto, Portugal

CSPC# 538710

January 4, 2018

"The 40-Year Old Port (technically +40, although that would have bugged up the search engine) has a clear, deep mahogany color, although there a little more reddishness here compared to the 30-Year Old. The nose is more volatile than the 30-Year Old – this is feisty and boisterous and refuses to act its age. I kind of like that and it soon calms down to offer aromas of balsam, cloves, shaved ginger, fig and marjoram. The palate is lively and bright with the right amount of VA to give it a kick without unbalancing the layers of spicy honeyed fruit. Nutmeg, orange rind, black pepper, tamarind and dried apricots toward the finish somehow evoke images of Morocco. Wonderful!" – Neal Martin, Wine Advocate
