

Dr. Lawanne' S. Grant

Lawanne' S. Grant earned a BS in Criminal Justice from Grambling State University graduating summa cum laude and salutatorian of her class. She advanced to obtain a MS in Administration of Criminal Justice from California State University, Sacramento, and a MA in Theology and Biblical Studies from Fuller Theological Seminary. She earned a Ph.D. in Business and Organizational Leadership conferred by Regent University. Dr. Lawanne' S. Grant is a Visiting Professor who teaches Leadership & Organizational Behavior, Public Speaking, Comparative Religions, and Philosophy classes.

Dr. Grant serves the Church of God in Christ on various levels. She is the First Lady of Kingdom Builders Church in Charlotte, NC where she gracefully labors with her husband First Administrative Assistant Darryl L. Grant, who also serves the Charlotte Metro District as Superintendent. Additionally, she supports the vision of the North Carolina 2nd Jurisdiction under the leadership of Prelate, Bishop Stenneth E. Powell Sr., and Supervisor of Women, Mother Patricia D. Lofton. Dr. Grant served the International Youth Department as an Assistant Chairlady and Executive Board Member. Most recently, she was appointed as a Special Consultant to General Supervisor for the Church of God in Christ, Mother Barbara McCoo Lewis, and charged with serving as the Director of the Women's International Convention Empowerment Workshops.

Coupled with involvement in various outreach efforts, community programs, and professional organizations, Lawanne' S. Grant is a sought-after motivational speaker, mentor, and published author. Dr. Grant served nearly fifteen years as a Deputy Probation Officer and has provided leadership coaching to religious and corporate leaders across the states for over twenty years. She is the founder and CEO of Leadership DevelopME, LLC with the mission of positively impacting the MIND and EXECUTION of leaders through coaching sessions, strategic planning, and book publications.

