San Francisco Chapter Newsletter

Dean's Column

by William Vaughan

Please join us for our first chapter event of the 2017–2018 year. This season, I am really focusing on hospitality. I would like us to meet, greet and eat our way through the season. I have lowered our member cost of the catered dinners to $35 so that all of us can participate. The quality of the meals will still be the finest! La Mediterranee will be the caterers for our opening dinner. They were really superb at St Mary's Cathedral at last year's opening dinner.

Our opening event is at St Mary the Virgin Church, Union and Steiner Streets in San Francisco. I know parking is rough, but please, do not let that deter you from coming. I'm hoping there will be plenty of street parking.

If not, the closest parking lot is 2001 Union Street, ($5/hr.). There is a less expensive lot at 2055 Lombard, at Webster, ($2/hr.). If you prefer to take public transit, the 41 Muni bus stops right near the church.

The Evensong will begin at 4:15 p.m., and the choir of St Mary the Virgin, conducted by Eric Choate, will lead us in prayer. We will then have the installation of officers. Around 5:00 p.m., we will have appetizers and dinner.

During dessert, Byron Adams will speak to us. Byron is a composer and musicologist at UC Riverside. The choir of St Mary's will be singing his setting of Evening Service during Evensong.

You can purchase your dinner ticket with your credit card by clicking on the link in the other column. If you wish to pay by check, please send it to Bill Vaughan, 1100 Fulton Ave., San Leandro, CA 94577. Please call me to let me know you are sending me a check. My number is 707-373-0643. The cost of the dinner is $35. We will have lots of fun. We have made the event a bit earlier so that all of us who commute far and work the next day can be home at a decent hour. ~

Charles F. “Chuck” Swisher

from Vic Ferrer

I had the good fortune to have known Chuck for some 20+ years. He led the charge to save and restore San Francisco’s great Exposition Organ (Austin Opus 500) located in the San Francisco Civic Auditorium. Like so many other municipal pipe organs, the Exposition Organ was forgotten and went silent; but in 1984 Chuck founded “The Citizens’ Committee To Preserve The San Francisco Municipal Pipe Organ” and shined a spotlight on this important piece of San Francisco history.

Through out the mid-late 1980s Chuck rallied to get the instrument back up and playing. He organized volunteer organ builders and organists, conducted “organ crawls” and recording sessions and helped raise funds.

In 1988, the instrument was showcased at the 33rd Annual National Convention of the Organ Historical Society. Things looked promising, but in 1989 the Loma-Prieta earthquake caused great damage to the instrument. Since then, the organ has never played another note.

Chuck loved this pipe organ and were it not for his dedication, “The Exposition Organ” would surely have been forgotten and lost. Chuck’s spirit will always be connected with Austin Opus 500.

In early 2002, I got to spend some time with Chuck and interviewed him to capture some of his important recollections and stories about the instrument.† He was an expert in audio, lighting and pipe organs and a creative and smart audio consultant and engineer. He also co-produced some of Virgil Fox’s legendary multimedia light shows at Winterland and Amazing Grace, both in San Francisco.

Chuck was also involved with the Midmer-Losh Boardwalk Hall organ in Atlantic City, New Jersey. He, along with the late John “Jack” Clotworthy would eventually become executive producers for my documentary film “The Senator’s Masterpiece”. Their belief and trust in me opened many doors and allowed me access to tell the story of the world’s largest pipe organ.

I spoke with Chuck only a couple of weeks ago. I am sad to hear about his passing. We often take for granted that people will be around forever, and then one day, they are gone...

Rest in peace Chuck.

from William Vaughan

In my convention report in the August newsletter, I omitted the fact that our own chapter member Jim Welch gave a recital on the Conference Center organ on Wednesday, June 14 at 2pm, and then he immediately made his way to the Cathedral of the Madeleine to present a French romantic masterclass at 3pm. Congratulations to Jim for his excellent work! I received emails from other chapter members who were at the convention, but our paths did not cross. There were a lot of attendees, and I walked to and from the convention venues instead of taking the bus. Thank you to all of you who attended.

East Contra Costa County

from William Vaughan

A boys’ choir from France sang an exquisite program at Saint Ignatius of Antioch Catholic Church in Antioch. The church was almost full which is so remarkable considering it is in east Egypt. Father Robert Rien is the Pastor, and Don Pearson is the Director of Music. The organ is a Rodgers with 18 ranks of pipes.

The TAO

from William Vaughan

I happened to go to www.agohq.org, and guess who I saw? There is Dominic Pang, our winner of the competition in June. These are all the 1st and 2nd place winners from each region. Congratulations!

Past & New Board Members

from William Vaughan

Thank you to past board members

I would like to thank Sub Dean, George Emblom; Treasurer, Bill Visscher; Secretary, Clara Co; Special Projects Committee, Lenore Alford and Donald Mulliken; Program Committee, David Howitt, Timothy Zerlang and Jan Robitscher, for all their wonderful work with various aspects of the board over the past few years. Their terms have timed out, and we wish them well.

Welcome to new board members

Now we have some new board members to introduce. Below are their bios.

SUB DEAN ELECT – KYMBERLY PAYNE

Kymberly (Stone) Payne is a young organist who is passionate about sharing her love of the organ, and the power we have as organists to bless others and change lives. Kymberly began her organ studies at Brigham Young University in 2009 and completed her Masters of Music there with an emphasis in Organ Performance in 2016.

While at BYU, Kymberly taught and performed extensively, both on the organ and carillon. As part of her graduate assistantship, Kymberly taught group organ classes, sight singing and dictation classes, as well as private carillon and organ lessons. In addition to teaching, Kymberly was an Associate Carillonneur at Brigham Young University where she gave weekly carillon recitals, and assisted in organ tuning and repair on campus.

In January of 2016, she began working as Organ Department Executive Assistant, and continued her work for BYU after graduation. She married Curt Payne in November 2016 and moved to California, but she is humbled that she gets to continue her involvement with these LDS Organ Workshops from her home in San Leandro, CA as BYU Organ Workshop Administrator.

Kymberly currently serves as Ward Organist at her local LDS congregation in San Leandro, CA, and is building her piano and organ studio. She is a member of the American Guild of Organists (AGO), the Organ Historical Society (OHS) and the Guild of Carillonneurs in North America (GCNA). Her newest organ service opportunity is her lifetime appointment as Guest Organist at the Tabernacle on Temple Square.

SECRETARY – ELIZABETH FORSYTH

A native of San Francisco, Elizabeth Forsyth first studied organ with Esther Johnson of Berkeley, CA. She received her Bachelor and Master of Music degrees in organ performance from Brigham Young University where she studied with Robert Cundick and J.J. Keeler. Long active in the AGO, she has

Directory News

from Bill Vaughan

I am in the process of putting the finishing touches on the directory. Many have responded to my email checking to make sure their info is correct. Thank you so very much for replying! The new directory will be given to you at the Opening Event dinner. Please come and pick one up.

Recital Series Donors

from Bill Vaughan

When you renew your guild membership, would you consider donating to the Recital Series? It is through your generous gifts that we can host these wonderful events each season. Thank you so very much if you already have donated. We are compiling a list of the current donors, and we hope to print that list in the October newsletter.

served on the Executive Committees of both the San Francisco and the Philadelphia chapters and has chaired committees on Long Range Planning and The Young Organist, most recently serving as Sub dean of our chapter. Active in church music for over 40 years, she is currently the organist at First Congregational Church of Berkeley. A past guest organist at the Salt Lake Tabernacle, she has frequently been a Philadelphia AGO Chapter noon recitalist and has also performed at The National Shrine of Our Lady of Czestochowa and the Philadelphia Cathedral. Recent collaborations have been with Young People's Symphony Orchestra, Folsom Lake Symphony and Chora Nova. Elizabeth teaches both piano and organ students and delights in getting her teenage piano students over to the organ bench. Each August she can be found presenting classes and workshops at the BYU Organ Workshop. She is the proud mother of four sons and grandmother of eight.

TREASURER – MICHAEL PAGE

I am currently a resident of San Leandro and I consider myself to be a full-time substitute organist. My first organ job was as a junior in high school, and I have had an organist position of some sort ever since. I am a graduate of the University of Redlands in Southern California, a veteran of the Air Force (Vietnam era) and I had a 23-year career in winemaking after that. Following my retirement from the wine business, I went to work for Edward Millington Stout III in his organ shop, and participated in the care and restoration of many of the instruments in his care. I have been completely retired from "real" work since 2009. At this time, I am very busy as a substitute organist, travelling around the Bay Area to fulfill commitments. I have decided that I should follow the good examples of many of my fellow guild members and volunteer to work for the guild as treasurer. I expect this will be a very valuable experience.

Steve's Corner of Organ Lit

from Steve Repasky

The organ music of Denis Bédard is gaining popularity. This Canadian composer now has up to 52 opus numbers including variations on Amazing Grace, Christus Vincit, Lasst uns erfruen, Ein' fest Berg, Veni Creator, and Victimae Paschali Laudes. For starters, I recommend his Suite in the classical French organ style as an introduction to his accessible writing. The entire organ book is quite accessible and the Récit from this organ book is often heard in recitals. The three following books are progressively more difficult.

Suite du premier ton pour orgue (1993)

1. Plein Jeu, 2. Dialogue, 3. Récit, 4. Grand Jeu
RSCM Catalogue number: CH 12; Éditions Cheldar

Variations sur Sine Nomine pour orgue (1998)

Two short movements: Maestoso & Allegro moderato followed by the toccata Allegro non troppo
RSCM Catalogue number: CH 25; Éditions Cheldar

Pater Noster: Eight Pieces for Organ (2007)

Based on eight versets of the Lord's Prayer commissioned by Holy Rosary Cathedral, Vancouver.
RSCM Catalogue number: CH 44; Éditions Cheldar

Huit Invocations (2011)

1. Awake, Organ, sacred instrument, sing the praise of God our Creator and Father.
2 . . . celebrate Jesus our Lord . . .
3 . . . sing to the Holy Spirit . . . etc.
RSCM Catalogue number: CH 58; Éditions Cheldar
