The Information You Need!

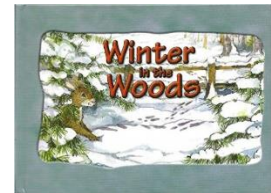

Thank you for sticking to your contracted pick up and drop off times. We are required to follow specific ratio guidelines and if you drop your child off earlier than their time, we may have to ask you to wait for additional staff to arrive. If you are unsure of your contracted time, please feel free to ask 😊

We LOVE our teachers and so does your child. Look at our teacher wall and see what your child's teacher likes. Feel free to bring a little treat and tell them thanks for all the time and love they give to your child. We know it is hard to leave your child and we thank you for choosing us.
